MRS. WILLIAMS' LONG SICKNESS
Yields To Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Elkhart, Ind.:—"I suffered for fourteen years from organic inflammation, chronic female weakness, pain and irregularities. The pains in my sides were increased by walking or standing on my feet and I had such awful bearing down feelings, was depressed in spirits and became thin and pale with dull, heavy eyes. I decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial and also the Sarsaparilla. I have now used the remedies for four months and cannot express my thanks for what they have done for me.

"If these lines will be of any benefit you have my permission to publish them."—Mrs. SADIE WILLIAMS, 455 James Street, Elkhart, Indiana.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record of being the most successful remedy for female ills we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., seem to prove this fact.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

THIEVES LOOT BANK
Schoolhouse at Elma, Wash., Fired to Divert Attention.

While Citizens Gather About Fire, Desperadoes Successfully Escape With Much Cash.
Elma, Wash.—First firing the schoolhouse to attract the attention of citizens, seven heavily armed men Saturday night entered the Bank of Elma, made the cashier prisoner, "covered" several customers and then robbed the vault of between $3500 and $3700. Several members of the gang remained outside the bank and made targets of approaching pedestrians and the town marshal, and when their confederates finished the looting, riddled the plate glass windows as they made off down the railroad tracks.

The Bank of Elma remains open Saturday nights from 7 to 8 o'clock. The attack was just before closing time and the only ones in the bank were Cashier Earl France, his bookkeeper, A. H. Fleming, and three depositors, Walter Myer, Ed Bosley and George Avery, and Ben Young. Four of the highwaymen entered the bank, covered the three occupants, forcing Cashier France into the vault, where he was held prisoner. Three of the gang on the outside hurriedly forced two passersby into the bank, where they were "covered." One of the men on the inside made the haul during the dramatic "covering" of the citizens, taking only the money in the vault, leaving $2000 on the counter untouched.

Rebels Carry Old Glory.
Juarez, Mex.—When Carranza, first chief of the revolution, entered this city Monday, an American flag was carried by the side of the Mexican emblem. Americans in the crowd cheered and were joined in some extent by the native spectators. General Carranza, on foot, had passed, and behind came a troop of his soldiers. As they entered the main street only the Mexican flag was visible, but at that moment the Stars and Stripes were suddenly unfurled and the two emblems were carried through the streets.

Mountain Breaks Away.
Brive, France—A large section of a mountain has become detached by seismic disturbances and is slowly sliding down the valley, sweeping everything in its path. Several farms and cottages have been blotted out and roads from Brive and Lantueil have been destroyed for more than half a mile. Heavy rumblings indicate that the mass is gaining impetus and the inhabitants are fleeing from their homes. Government engineers are seeking a means to limit the extent of the damage.

Strong on Piety.
During the civil war the late Colonel Gabe Bouch organized a regiment which he controlled as a dictator. "I am a humble servant of the Lord," said an itinerant evangelist who had wandered into the camp one day, "endeavoring to save the souls of the unfortunate. I have just left the camp of the—th Massachusetts where I was instrumental in leading eight men into the paths of righteousness."
"Adjutant!" thundered Colonel Bouch after a moment's pause, "De tail 10 men for baptism! No—do not baptize a man, ma'am, he's a heathen for piety!"—The Best Stories in the World, by T. L. Mason.

Mind Over Matter.
It was a cold morning, and though Mr. Ruff was still struggling with a hard beard and a soft razor, Mrs. Ruff was already in the dining room. As she stood before the fire the cook came in with a face of abject misery.
"Oh, ma'am, what shall I do?" she wailed. "The dog has just run into the garden with the master's breakfast, and it's too late to go out and get anything else."
"Is there anything exciting in the paper this morning?" asked Mrs. Ruff.
"Why, yes, ma'am," answered the astonished servant. "It says there's been a railway accident, a colliery disaster and a soft razor, ma'am."
"Then put the paper on my master's plate—he won't want any breakfast. But in case he does warm up a bit of last night's mutton."—Columbus Dispatch.

VILLA WINS GROUND
Desperate Assault Gains Coveted Key to City of Torreón.

Wounded Die of Thirst and Neglect—Less Injured Fight On, or Assist Disabled From Field.
Gomez Palacio, Mex.—Four days of fighting, including three desperate assaults by the rebels, were crowned Saturday when General Fancisco Villa moved into the city and established his headquarters on that side of the town looking toward Torreón and within three miles of that great goal of the campaign.

The final deciding assault was delivered early in the day. It was preceded by a bombardment, after which the infantry dashed into the streets. Rifles, machetes, pistols and hand grenades were used in the different encounters in the narrow thoroughfares. The grenades of home manufacture were lighted with the cartridges which are an unofficial part of the equipment of every Mexican soldier.

General Villa does not yet know his own loss except that it is heavy. The wounded suffered terribly from thirst and many died for lack of water and surgical attention. The dead of both sides were mingled in the streets or found huddled under the piles of earth which had once been adobe houses or corrals, wrecked by rebel shells.

No more furious battle ever was fought in Mexico. It was a delirium. General Villa did not stop to mourn his losses, but with characteristic energy began preparations to move on Torreón. He expects to co-operate with 4000 men under General Herrera, who is under orders to attack the town from the east.

Wilson Wins First Blood In Canal Tolls Fight
Washington, D. C.—President Wilson won the opening skirmish of the greatest legislative battle of his administration Saturday when the house, over bitter protests from the recognized Democratic leaders and almost solid minority opposition, adopted a special rule for the consideration of the bill repealing the provision of the Panama canal act exempting coastwise American ships from tolls.

Speaker Clark, Democratic Leader Underwood, Republican Leader Mann and Progressive Leader Murdock were at the head of those lined up against the administration, but the house responded to the President's personal appeal for prompt consideration of the repeal bill as a means of supporting his administration's foreign policy.

T. R. Making New Path.
Rio Janeiro—Colonel Roosevelt and his exploring party are still proceeding down the Dogdria river on their way to Manaus, Brazil, according to a dispatch received here from Colonel Rondon, the representative of the Brazilian government with the expedition. The dispatch said the territory being traversed had never before been explored and that it was unlikely the party would again be heard from for a month. Another section of the expedition, will undertake a descent of the Parana river.

Miss Tyler Makes Plea.
Washington, D. C.—Miss Mattie R. Tyler, a granddaughter of the late President Tyler, went to the White House Saturday to plead with President Wilson to continue her as post-mistress at Courtland, Va. Miss Tyler, who has held the post 17 years, says she supports herself and sister on the salary of $650 a year, but that now "a clique of Virginia politicians" is trying to deprive her of the position. She did not see the President, but left a note asking for an engagement, which will be granted.

Idaho Man Dies at 107.
Boise, Idaho—James Sullivan, aged 107 years, said to be the oldest man in Idaho if not the Northwest, died Friday morning at 7 o'clock at the Falk home on Warm Springs avenue, where he had been employed as a gardener for the past 20 years. Mr. Sullivan was a native of Ireland and came to this country when a young man. At the time of the Civil War he tried to enlist but was refused several times on account of old age.

Gold Again.
For 10 long but blissful years they had walked along the path of love; but as yet the lovesick youth had never mentioned about their getting married. Courtship is very charming; but when there does not seem to be altar rails at the end of it girls naturally begin to lose interest in the game.

Anyhow, Jane thought it time that the marriage day was fixed, so she threw out a gentle hint to her lover by way of encouraging him. Encouragement, she thought, was all the dear fellow wanted.

"Nathaniel," she whispered coyly, "they're saying we're going to be married soon."
"Are they, though," answered the stolid swain. "What a jolly sell it'll be for them when they find out we ain't!"—London Tit-Bits.

Wiser Than They Seemed.
Boys, like things, are not always what they seem. A school inspector having been told that a certain class was very dull, decided to test them himself. Asking the lads to give him a number, and one of them calling out "Seventy-two," he wrote on the blackboard "27." No remark coming from the class he asked for another number, and was given "forty-eight." This he wrote on the board "84," and turned to observe the signs of intelligence. None were apparent.

Putnam Fadeless Dyes are the brightest and fastest.
A benevolent old gentleman was walking in the park when the loud sobs of a little girl arrested him. "What is the matter, my child?" he asked.
"Boo, hoo, boo! I've lost my penny!" cried the little girl.
The benevolent old gentleman drew a penny from his pocket and, extending it, he said with a beatific smile, "Here's your penny, my dear child. And now stop crying."
The little girl, instead of thanking the benevolent old gentleman gratefully, stamped her foot and said with scornfully flashing eyes:
"Oh, you wicked old man, you had my penny all the time!"—Philadelphia Record.

Forethought.
Mrs. Whann, the weeping widow of a well-known man, requested that the words "My sorrow is greater than I can bear" be placed upon the marble slab of her dear departed.
A few months later the lady returned and asked how much it would cost her to have the inscription effaced and another substituted.
"No need of that, marm," replied the man, soothingly; "you see, I lift just enough room to add 'alone.'"—Harper's Magazine.

Gets Right Twist On Rheumatism
Makes Short Work of Cleaning Out Your Entire System—Aches and Pains Go Fast.

In S. S. S. You Get a Twist on Rheumatism That Settles It.
Many a rheumatic sufferer has been to the drug store for a bottle of S. S. S. and been handed something claimed to be "Just as good." Truly, to ask for bread and be given a stone is still in practice. If you are troubled with rheumatism in any form be sure to use S. S. S. and note its wonderful influence.

Wheeler's Kidney Pills
S. S. S. has the peculiar action of soaking through the intestines directly into the blood. In five minutes its influence is at work in every artery, vein and tiny capillary. Every membrane, every organ of the body, every artery becomes in effect a filter to strain the blood of impurities. The stimulating properties of S. S. S. compel the skin, liver, bowels, kidneys, bladder to all work to the one end of casting out every irritating, every pain-inducing atom of poison; it dissolves by friction all accumulations in the joints, causes acid accretions to dissolve, renders them neutral and scatters those peculiar formations in the nerve centers that cause such mystifying and often baffling rheumatic pains.
