ALIKE TO YOU but not to your horses. Give them some of ours for a change and see how they will eat it much more greedily than they have been attacking their old fodder. Good feed means good feeding and as a horse owner you know that means better horses in every respect.

The protracted meetings at the Methodist church closed Monday night and Mr. and Mrs. Park left on Tuesday morning for Monroe, Washington, where they will conduct a series of meetings at the State Reformatory. The people of the church are well pleased with the success of the meetings.

The 25th of April is "Good Roads Day." In district No. 4 the people are going to get together and besides having a good time will try and do much needed work on the road. The men are invited to come with teams and plows prepared to cut down the hill by the Lovel place. The ladies of the district will bring baskets of food, which will be served to all at Ely's hall. For further particulars ask the road supervisor in that district.

Joseph Shafer of the State University, visited Estacada last Saturday, being enroute to Springfield to deliver a lecture. While in the city he called on Prof. Ford to see what the school was doing in regard to killing off the flies. He suggested that if the school children would take up the matter, much good could be accomplished in exterminating the little pests. He also intimated that the Civic club might do good work along this line.

Mrs. Boswell had many callers on Easter Sunday but appreciated none more than Mary Alice and Florence June Reed, Victor and Jean Adix and Wallace Jay Guthrie, who came with Easter baskets. Teddie Howe also was a visitor at the Boswell home and all went away with their baskets well filled with Easter goodies. Children as well as grown folks, are always made welcome at the Boswell home.

Easter in Estacada

All church services in Estacada Sunday morning were well attended and the Easter hats and other finery escaped the rain, which fell later on.

Services at the Methodist church commenced at 10:30 in the morning with the Sunday school, Rev. Park having charge. The preaching service which followed was largely attended, the sermon being given by Evangelist Park. At 2 o'clock in the afternoon, the Sunday schools of Currinsville, Garfield, Zion church and Estacada joined in an Easter service. The church was crowded to its capacity and the program of the Risen Lord was greatly enjoyed. Garfield contributed two selections by a male quartette, Miss Ruth Brown of Zion sang a solo, Currinsville furnished instrumental music and Estacada's primary class gave a song. Dr. Kimball of Willamette University was present and offered prayer, and there was a sermon by Rev. Park. The preaching service in the evening was preceded by the young people's meeting, with Miss Eva Wash as leader. Mrs. Park gave the sermon for the evening service, the subject of her discourse being, "The New Creation."

At the Christian church there was the regular Sunday school in the morning, at which time Mrs. Park spoke to the children. The preaching service followed with a sermon by Mrs. Park, after which the ordinance of baptism was administered to two candidates. All the meetings were interesting. In the evening the regular services were dismissed in order that the congregation might attend evangelistic services at the Methodist church.

Harry Morgan "Surprised"

Mrs. U. S. Morgan very successfully planned and carried out a surprise party for her son Harry Saturday evening, which was a most enjoyable occasion for the young people. Numerous games were played, after which a most tempting lunch was served. The young ladies present were Myrtle and Mary Woodie, Mattie Lewis, Elva Adams, Lelah Howe and Kittie Reagan. The young men were, Paul and Chester Womer, Milton Evans, Claude Woodie, Russel Betts and Harry Morgan.

"The Corner Store"

"A Howling Success" would be putting it mildly. Laughs and smiles mingled with tears, you know! A show that leaves an impression with you. Anyone will tell you why who saw the play "The Corner Store" presented by the Garfield Grange last Friday evening.

Mrs. A. C. Davis as Aunt Hannah, presented a character study that is deserving of especial mention. Her ability to adapt herself to the trying scenes showed much talent. Chas. Duncan impressed everyone in carrying out the functions of Uncle Eli, who keeps the corner store. L. Palmater as Jasper White, Harry Reid as Jimmy Flanagan and A. C. Davis as Otto Guckenheimer, were the source of much delight. Shrieks of laughter met every sentence of the three comedians. Mable Tracy interpreting the character of Dora, brought a ready applause. Mrs. Grace Jacoba acting the part of tricky country girl, adds much spice to the play. The ever difficult part of villain was capably handled by Herman Davis. "Bud" Ellison was adapted to R. C. Deming.

Much credit is due to Ed. Shear as director and manager of the show.

For the benefit of those in Estacada and adjacent districts, the production will be repeated, Friday evening the 17th at Boner's theatre. Don't miss it, it's worth while.

Contributed.

Remember the play at Ely's hall, Currinsville, Friday evening, April 24, by the Good Templars.
