War to Follow if Germans Persist in Keeping Kiau Chau.

Tokio Government Sends Notice by Six Different Channels, Including United States.

Tokio—Japan sent an ultimatum to Germany Saturday night at 8 o'clock, demanding the withdrawal of German warships from the Orient and the evacuation of Kiau_Chau and giving Germany until Sunday, August 23, to comply with the demand. Otherwise, the ultimatum states, Japan will take action.

The general expectation here is that the ultimatum will be followed by war.
Takaaki Kato, the Japanese foreign minister, simultaneously with the dispatch of the ultimatum, conferred with Georgh W. Guthrie, the American ambassador, and made to him a broad statement calculated to assure the United States that American interests in the Far East would be safeguarded and the integrity of China upheld. Owing to doubts whether communications with Berlin were assured, Japan, in order to insure the arrival of the ultimatum, forwarded it to Berlin by six channels, including Washington, London and Stockholm.
