NEWS OF THE WEEK

General Resume of Important Events Throughout the World.

Premier Asquith praises the Belgian

The Germans have imposed a fine of Namur, a principal city in Belgium, has fallen into the hands of the Ger-

A small German cruiser which ran ashore in a fog, was blown up by the true should exports to Japan be seized

The burgomaster of the city of Brus-

The Russian army is reported crushing the Prussians and making headway

The French fear an attack on the Louvre and have placed all valuable French Capital Storing pictures in vaults. A persistent report is to the effcet that the Crown Prince of Germany was killed in battle. The French government is permit-

3000 Americans to leave France

many members in the European war. The Japanese liner Shinyo Maru

It is officially announced that the Russians have occupied Tilsit, a town

It is said that British marines have occupied Ostend to prevent the Germans from getting a foothold on the "Bob" Burdette, the famous humor-

Xavier de Castelnau, the 12-year-old n of General Castelnau, chief of staff of the French army, was among the killed in a recent action.

The Montenegrin troops, with a bayonet charge, repulsed a fresh Austrain attack at Rahovo, taking 150 prisoners

ting forth the neutrality of the United States during hostilities between Japan

Speaker Clark issued warrants for the arrest of absentee members of the house of representatives. Many members were found at the baseball park, cool cafes and other resorts. An official statement from the British consulate in Galveston, Tex., says three British warships have been sent at full speed to protect cotton and oil traffic in the Gulf of Mexico. The correspondent of the London of the belligerents." Daily Telegraph at Amsterdam says it is estimated that the total loss of the Belgians, up to date, has been 10,000 in killed, wounded and prisoners.

Home Secretary McKenna, of London, said that no spies had been shot in England. There have been rumors that many persons in the secret employ of Germany had been executed.

food since the war began in Europe has not developed that the increases were unawarranted, according Roger B. Wood, United States assistant district attorney in charge of commander at the moment of surrender the investigations at New York.

The Servian government in a pro test to France declares that the Austrian army during its retreat along the Drina river committed cruelties upon old men, women and children in violation of the rules of warfare. The Drina forms the greater part of the boundary between Bosnia and Servia.

Secretary Bryan cabled all American embassies and legations in Europe to urge Americans to leave Europe with-

A Boulogne dispatch to the Standard at London says the town of Tournai, capital of the Department of Hainaut, Belgium, occupied by the Germans, was compelled to pay an indemnity of the money was paid.

Prince Albert, King George's second son, who has been with the North Sea fleet, was recently taken ill with appendicitis. As rest and quiet were necessary, the prince was landed at a port in Scotland. His condition causes

The London Chronicle in a long arquestions of contraband of war, and formances the coming season. of bad management.

Congress Is Busy With

Washington, D. C .- To prepare for an emergency arising from the European war, the president and adminisay be considered. Rex, at Tokio, will sail for Seattle, except to the United States, while the war in Europe continues is under cor Wheat in Chicago pits is reported sideration. It is argued that should Eugene Light and Power may rise in a day or two to $1.23 per the shipments from the islands to Germany or Austria be captured by the Japanese, an embarrassing situation might arise. The same might be sels, has surrendered the city to the been studying the situation believe an ouncement by the power company loft of McKinnon's livery barn, supof cure, and they are urging action by congress to avert trouble which might be precipitated through Philippine Is- city plant. oward Berlin.

The French war office admits Ger
The French war office admits Ger
The French war office admits Ger
The private company has filed its ing a pool hall and living rooms.

The private company has filed its ing a pool hall and living rooms.

The private company has filed its ing a pool hall and living rooms.

The private company has filed its ing a pool hall and living rooms.

The private company has filed its ing a pool hall and living rooms.

The private company has filed its ing a pool hall and living rooms. man victory and the recovery of Lor- some provision must be made to compensate for losses that will follow.

Supplies for Emergency

enormous stacks of food were placed within the state warehouses. The drovers. The number of sheep pastured in the parks exceeds 10,000.

The decree calling for the evacua- Highway Condemnation 60 miles northeast of Koenigsberg, tion of the military zone around the forts was a formal notice, although One of the largest liners in the army engineers recently made a tour world, the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, of the environs of the forts and ex-was sunk by a British cruiser off the plained that the residents might be gineer Bowlby and his assistants, ap-which was deemed an obstruction. Many of the houses in the line of way for the Columbia Highway. fire are those of poor people whose owners are now at the front. Many of these families lack resources and $500 an acre and for agricultural land ist, is reported dangerously ill at his they took the situation without com- an acre is being asked. summer home in Pasadena, Cal. He is plaint, although they addressed a pe- As there are more than 100 claims, tition to the military governor, re- the County court will take several days questing that he use the power vested for the hearings, after which its decisin him only as a last extremity.

Japanese Are Cautioned to Avoid War Discussions

lation of German subjects and special get all they can for their wheat. care should be taken in your attitude peans and Americans. "As the United States declared neutrality, Japanese in America should recognize and bind themselves to the neutrality obligations. Outside of the necessary and proper support of their mother country, they should not give any support or assistance to any from Berlin says the defense of its water supply from the Moselle, France, was the most heroic since the beginning of the war. The grounds would be moved to town surrendered only after an extraordinary display of valor. Of 36 siege opening of the fair September 28. The federal inquiry into the higher guns, all except one had been disman-

German Honors His Foe.

Frederick William begged the French

Villa and Obregon Agree.

Nogales, Ariz. - A statement was ment they signed. Colonel Elias Cal-Benjamin Maytorena is recognized as The mother died a few years ago. An American warship has been dis- civil governor of Sonora, and will repatched to Turkey, presumably to tain command of his guard of Yaqui carry gold to American missionaries. again cause throuble, Villa and Obrearmies into the state and attack the disturbers.

10,000 to Flee Albania. mpnay's correspondent at Barri, mills employed about 40 men. Wied, departs, as they fear anarchy. year was better than he expected. Prince William has asked Italy leave the armored yacht Mysuratta at his disposal, as he may be forced to abandon the throne at any time.

Opera Singers Off to War. European conflict that the directors of tion Commissioner Watson, who al- blamed for the noted decrease. ticle warns the English government of the Chicago Grand Opera company, the danger of England's becoming em- after a despairing two days' meeting, plied with the corporation laws of the are being obtained. Some growers broiled with the United States over announced that there would be no per- state. argues that any estrangement between nard Ulrich, manager of the company, couver, B. C., and, according to the said to be the largest yet planted and the two countries would be the extreme cabled the singers notifying them their corporation commissioner, is conduct- estimates for its value has been at a contracts had been canceled

Issues Arising From War Suit to Recover 50,000 Acres State Land Urged

they are flocking in on every train, state of large tracts of grazing land in The Pacific Livestock company is determine the nature of a war revenue obtained by fraud. Suit is pending measure to offset losses in revenue, some aspects of the foreign relations for the recovery of 27,000 acres of Circuit Judge Harris recently, in the Namur, a principal city in Belgium, as fallen into the hands of the Gernans.

The German ambassador, Count von tex at Tokio, will sail for Seattle.

The German ambassador, Count von tex at Tokio, will sail for Seattle. This land, he said, is largely held by state.

Companies in Rate War Eugene — A long-anticipated rate nounce the extent of the cut. ing and 5 cents for power was lower quickly destroyed. truned into an entrenched camp. cents maximum for lighting and 4½ Following the decree issued by the cents maximum for power, with a minrollowing the decree issued by the military governor, ordering residents of the district within the city's winter, owing to the enlistment of winter, owing to the enlistment of determining the decree issued by the cents maximum for power, with a minimum of 1.2 cents for 10,000-kilowatt in the postoffice and Charles Ellis' law offices. Herr Rosen then observed the time, rose and excused himself. He took the steps leading abruptly down the decree issued by the cents maximum for power, with a minimum of 1.2 cents for 10,000-kilowatt in the postoffice and Frank Davies' and Charles Ellis' law offices. Herr Rosen then observed the time, rose and excused himself. He took the steps leading abruptly down the decree issued by the military governor, ordering residents in the postoffice and Frank Davies' and Charles Ellis' law offices. Herr Rosen then observed the time, rose and excused himself. He took the steps leading abruptly down the destroy their homes within four days, fore the entrance of the city plant, saved. In the livery stable 27 horses terrace to the carriage road. He had sailed from San Fancisco to Japan escorted by a Japanese armored cruiser.

Sailed from San Fancisco to Japan escorted by a Japanese armored cruiser.

Bois de Boulogne presents a picturation of the state warenouses. The present rate war was forecast about $30,000 insurance. Several buildings on the state warenouses. Armies of the allies are battling to into a vast pasture filled with cows the State railroad commission to curb of the street caught fire, but the am going. Do not follow. I shall exsave Paris from the Germans. A con- and sheep. The animals have been di- the activities of the private company flames were extinguished. flict between millions is believed to be vided into groups and are guarded by and the latter responded with a rereserves wearing the large shirts of quest for unrestricted competition. ty will rebuild.

Suits Are Being Tried

St. Helens-About 100 farmers, sevalled on to destroy their property, peared before the County court in the condemnation proceedings for right of will be without refuge. Nevertheless, that is taken nothing less than $1000 ion will be given on all claims at the

Flour Holds at $5.20.

San Francisco - Japanese associa- in the Portland market now is $5 a acres were burned over in the three attack at Rahovo, taking 150 prisoners and killing 300 Austrians.

Red Cross society of the United States is urging mayors of large cities to aid the campaign to secure funds to care for the wounded in the European war.

We heated talks and discussions with the secure of the content of the Europeans and Americans on the war a cent over a preceding day's price. river country during the past week. Farmers are holding very firm and are "In California there is a large poputaking advantage of the situation to

The present price of $5 a barrel for flour compares with the quotation of "Japanese should refrain from con- $4.70 on this date last year, $5.10 on versations and actions which might the same date in 1912, $4.95 three tend to excite the sentiment of Euro- years ago, $5.35 four years ago, $6.25 five years ago, and $4.85 in 1908.

Water System for Fair.

Salem-An independent water system for the State Fair grounds has been decided upon by the board of di- an expense of between $8000 and $9000 rectors, and the drilling of the first a month, which is being paid by the well has been started.

According to Mr. George E. Scott, the contractor, a large river flows under the grounds and Salem, and he ad-Rome - (Via Paris) - A dipsatch vises that the city eventually obtain Longwy, department of Meurthe-et- Secretary Meredith announced that the cottage city district at the fair west of the new pavilion before the ### Big Estate Is Inherited.

The Germans so admired the brilliant resistance that Crown Prince sister, Mrs. Tulita Adams, wife of a exhibitors. The Nehalem contingent geles with Colonel James A. Raley, a prominent attorney of Pendleton, claim their shares in the estate of their father, John Guriado, who died recently, leaving $150,000 and no will. Their ssued by Generals Villa and Obregon identity has been established, attorneys years ago by Robert Rand, and occuincing the terms of an engage- say. The elder Guriado and his wife quarreled when the children were les, a Carranza adherent, is removed young, and the family became split up, from office and replaced by General the children going with their mother.

Scouring Mills Close.

Pendleton - After a successful season covering deals aggregating over $500,000 since March, the Pendleton Scouring Mills have closed down until next spring. Edmund J. Burke, head 10,000 to Flee Albania.

London — The Exchange Telegraph later will return to Philadelphia. The Italy, says that the Italian government output of the season was 4,000,000 has arranged for the transportation pounds of wool baled and 1,500,000 $400,000 within an hour, the burgol of 10,000 fugitives who wish to leave pounds scoured. Mr. Burke predicted naster being held as a hostage unti- Albania as soon as Prince William, of a better season next year and says this

Canadian Company Sued.

Salem-A temporary restraining order against the National Mercantile company doing business in Oregon was issued by Circuit Judge Galloway. The Chicago - So many singers are en- action was started by Attorney General ing a poor yield. The midge, grass dangering their lives and voices in the Crawford at the instance of Corpora-hoppers, and the long dry spell are leged that the company had not com-Ber- poration, having headquarters in Van- The Polk county acreage this year is ing in Portland a loan business.

pean war, the president and administration leaders are endeavoring to assure the presence of a quorum of both of Burns, has conferred with Attorney lawyer, the land was obtained several Houses of congress in Washington.

House leaders have made imperative lemand for return of absentees and tuting suits for the recovery by the lemand for return of absentees and tuting suits for the recovery by the lemand for return of absentees and tuting suits for the recovery by the lemand for return of absentees and tuting suits for the recovery by the lemand for return of absentees and tuting suits for the recovery by the lemand for return of absentees and tuting suits for the recovery by the lemand for return of absentees and tuting suits for the recovery by the lemand for return of absentees and tuting suits for the recovery by the lemand for return of absentees and tuting suits for the recovery by the lemand for return of absentees and tuting suits for the recovery by the lemand for return of absentees and tuting suits for the recovery by the lemand for return of absentees and tuting suits for the recovery by the lemand for return of absentees and tuting suits for the recovery by the lemand for return of absentees and tuting suits for the recovery by the lemand for return of absentees and tuting suits for the recovery by the lemand for return of absentees and tuting suits for the recovery by the lemand for return of absentees and tuting suits for the recovery by the lemand for return of absentees and tuting suits for the recovery by the lemand for return of absentees and tuting suits for the recovery by the lemand for return of absentees and tuting suits for the recovery by the lemand for return of absence and tuting suits for the recovery by the lemand for return of absence and tuting suits for the recovery by the lemand for return of absence and tuting suits for the recovery by the lemand for return of absence and tuting suits for the recovery by the lemand for return of absence and tuting suits for the recovery by the lemand for return of absence and tuting suits for the recovery by the lemand for return of the return o dy there is a substantial quorum. Harney and Malheur counties, control fighting the suit of the state on the While the conference primarily is to of which Mr. McConnell charges was grounds that it obtained the land in a Circuit Judge Harris recently, in the $300,000 on the Belgian town of Charof the nation with particular reference school land. The company has entered suit to prevent the adjudication of is similar to the one against the live-Philippine exports' are giving the water rights on the Silves river, and stock company, decided that the state

Burns, Or., Fire Destroys $60,000 Worth of Property

Burns-The worst fire in the history war between the municipal power plant of Burns began Monday at midnight and the Oregon Power company was and in three hours a large num-ber of business houses were in Administration senators who have opened here this week with the andercut the reduction announced by the it quickly spread to every building in that block, including the Hotel French and a large two-story building containrailroad commission, declining to an- the east were burned and the flames The city's reduction amounted to 11 spread to the block to the south. They and Nora turned upon him a pair of eyes blank with astonishment. It per cent and before the cut was made bank, which is of stone, and caught in was as though she had been asleep the maximum rate of 9 cents for lighting and 5 cents for power was lower quickly destroyed. Then they com-Paris - The French' capital has than offered in any city in the Wil- municated to the roof of the stone rushed its plans to resist a siege by the German army. The city is being truned into an entrenched camp.

Lamette valley outside of the vicinity building occupied by the Bedell saloon and barber shop and also to another truned into an entrenched camp.

Lamette valley outside of the vicinity building occupied by the Bedell saloon and barber shop and also to another track as to the sentiment expressed in his whispered words. gan & Logan abstract office and Frank

> were burned to death. The losses will reach $60,000, with stone stairs which began at the por Several buildings on the west side

The owners of the destroyed proper-A heroic fight was made against the but smiling and saaking his head, blaze by firemen and citizens. It was due to this and favorable wind that Nora ran to the windo

the entire city was not wiped out. Five Fires Burn Over

Tract of 2000 Acres Cottage Grove-Nearly 2000 acres of the forest reserve was burned over in the recent fires in the London country. Probably 200,000 or 300,000 feet of timber was destroyed.

There were five fires in progress at one time, that on Little river, near Black Butte, being the most serious. Fire Warden Frank Brumbaugh and a crew of eight men have this and smaller fires under control.

Fire Warden S. P. Shortridge has gained control of three fires in the same territory. The blaze on Wilson creek is still burning, required a month's fighting with crews ranging The lowest wholesale price of flour from three to six men. Five hundred

Two Months' Work Needed.

Astoria - Captain Groves, superintendent of dredges for the Port of an insolence more marked than Court-Portland commission, says he expects about two months' work with the dredge Multnomah will be required to open up the Tongue Point channel. The intention is to dig a channel 300 feet wide and 25 feet deep from No. 2 buoy down, a distance of approximately 4000 feet. The operation of the dredge entails Commission.

Dahlia Lovers Exhibit.

Wheeler - The Nehalem Valley Industrial and Floral Fair at Nehalem was well attended. The exhibits included dahlias, vegetables, woodwork, needlework, cheese and creamery products and were such as to reflect the growth of industries in Nehalem valley. The dahlias were especially effective, nearly 2500 plants being arranged in the big centerpiece. laborer, are on their way to Los An- of the Tlilamook county boosters band furnished the music.

Hood River Relic Goes.

Hood River — The oldest structure now standing in Hood River, built 28 pied by the city's first barber, was destroyed by fire Wednesday. structure was occupied by a plumbing ompany and the fire started in a pile of tar-covered ropes. Its frame walls were dry as tinder, and the flames were pouring from doors and windows n an instant. Adjoining business blocks were saved by quick work of

Car Line Pays $74,000.

Oregon City-More than $100,000 was collected Tuesday in the tax colsettle their account with the sheriff's office on the delinquent tax

Buena Vista Clover Poor.

Buena Vista-Clover hulling, which is in progress in this district, is exposone bushel to two and one-half bushels The company is a foreign cor- report even less than a bushel an acre.

CHAPTER XI-Continued Nora, without relaxing the false smile, suddenly found emptiness in everything. "Sing!" said Herr Rosen. "I am too tired. Some other time."

world! truth; he saw in the look a feminine

The hour passed tolerably well. come by the other way, the rambling ter's lodge, back of the villa.

"Padre," whospered Courtlandt, plain to you when we meet again.' The padre signified that he understood. Harrigan protested vigorously, Nora ran to the window. She could see Herr Rosen striding along, down the winding road, his head in the air. Presently, from behind a cluster of mulberries, the figure of another man came into view. He was going at a dog-trot, his hat settled at an angle that permitted the rain to beat squarely into his face. The next turn in the road shut them both from sight. But Nora did not stir. Herr Rosen stopped and turned.

"You called?" 'Yes." Courtlandt had caught up with him just as Herr Rosen was about to open the gates. "Just a moment, Herr Rosen," with a hand upon the bars. "I shall not detain you long." There was studied insolence in the tones and the gestures which accompanied them.

"Be brief, if you please."

"My name is Edward Courtlandt, as doubtless you have heard." "In a large room it is difficult to remember all the introductions.

"Precisely. That is why I take the liberty of recalling it to you, so that you will not forget it," urbanely. A pause. Dark patches of water were spreading across their shoulders. arm, raised as it was against the bars.

"I do not see how it may concern replied Herr Rosen finally with landt's. stage entrance of the Opera. I pushed you aside, not knowing who you were You had offered your services; the door of Miss Harrigan's limousine." "It was you?" scowling. "I apologize for that. morning you will leave Bellaggio for Varenna. Somewhere between nine and ten the first train leaves for Milan." "Varenna! Milan!"

"Exactly. You speak English as naturally and fluently as if you were born to the tongue. Thus, you will leave for Milan. What becomes of you after that is of no consequence to me. Am I making myself clear?" "Verdampt! Do I believe my ears? furiously. "Are you telling me to leave

"As directly as I can." Herr Rosen's face became as red as his name. He was a brave young mah, but there was danger of an act ive kind in the blue eyes boring into his own. If it came to a physical contest, he realized that he would get the worst of it. He put his hand to his fore you go to America. I have bid throat; his very impotence was chok- den good-by to all save you. My child, Bellaggio tomorrow morning?"

ing him. Your Highness . . ." "Highness!" Herr Rosen stepped back. "Yes. Your Highness will readily see the wisdom of my concern for your hasty departure when I add that know all about the little house in Write to me, here. I return in No Versailles, that my knowledge is shared by the chief of the Parisian police and the minister of war. If hand upon it. you annoy Miss Harrigan with your equivocal attentions

'Gott! This is too much!" "Wait! I am stronger than you are. Do not make me force you to hear me to the end. You have gone lecting department. Tuesday was the about this intrigue like a blackguard, last opportunity for the taxpayers to and that I know Your Highness not to be. The matter is, you are young, you hair, to touch it with her lips! But without paying the 10 per cent added have always had your way, you have penalty. The Portland Railway, Light not learnt restraint. Your presence Power company paid more than here is an insult to Miss Harrigan, put aside your brushes for a week?" $74,000, the largest amount. Less and if she was pleasant to you this than $50,000 will be turned over to the afternoon it was for my benefit. If , you do not go, I shall expose you." ourtlandt opened the gate.

"And if I refuse?" Why, in that case, being the American that I am, without any particular reverence for royalty or nobility, as that it's Nora." is known, I promise to thrash you undly tomorrow morning at ten 'clock, in the dining room, in the careau, the drawing room, wherever I he went on, innocently but ruthlessly.

may happen to find you." Courtlandt turned on his heel and hurried back to the villa. He did not look over his shoulder. If he had, he ties. There's always some poor devil tory.

might have felt pity for the young, left outside. But who can help loving man who leaned heavily against the gate, his burning face pressed upon his rain soaked sleeve. When Courtlandt knocked at the door and was admitted, he apologized. "I came back for my umbrella."

"Umbrella!" exclaimed the padre. Why, we had no umbrellas. We came up in a carriage which is probably waiting for us this very minute by the "Absent-minded!" scoffed Abbott. You never forgot anything in all your ife, unless it was to go to bed. You wanted an excuse to come back."

"Any excuse would be a good one heart ached so she might soothe the hurt in his? She laid a hand upon in that case. I think we'd better be going, Padre. And by the way, Herr only dimly conscious of the contact. osen begged me to present his regrets. He is leaving Bellaggio in the morning."

Nora turned her face once more to

CHAPTER XII.

The Ball at the Villa "It is all very petty, my child," said the padre. "Life is made up of bigger things; the little ones should be ig-

To which Nora replied: "To a womfolded her arms across her heaving

"Wilfulness is called pride by some; and stubbornness. But you know, as up for the day's work; and to cuddle well as I do, that yours is resentment, him up when he comes home tired, anger, indignation. Yes, you have or disappointed, or unsuccessful. No pride, but it has not been brought into matter what mood he's in. Is my this affair. Pride is that within which | English getting away from you? prevents us from doing mean or sordid acts: and you could not do one or the other if you tried. The sentiment in you which should be developed

"Is mercy?" "No; justice, the patience to weigh the right or wrong of a thing.' "Padre, I have eyes, eyes; I saw." hear, but these are only witnesses, laying the matter before the court of the last resort, which is the mind. It is there we sift the evidence."

"He had the insufferable insolence to order Herr Rosen to leave," going around the barrier of his well-ordered

"Ah! Now, how could he send away Herr Rosen if that gentleman had really preferred to stay?

"Shall I tell you? I suspected; so been in his place, I should have chastised Herr Rosen instead of bidding

"Positively. The men who guarded you were two actors from one of the theaters. He did not come to Versailles because he was being watched.

He was found and sent home the night

"I'm sorry. But it was so like him.

a way women have of modifying either good or bad impulses! It would have been fine of you to have stopped when

"Padre, one would believe that you

"If I had I should have to leave it after today. I return to Rome tomor row and shall not see you again be my last admonition is, be patient; observe; guard against that impulse born in your blood to move hastily.

to form opinions without solid foundations. Be happy while you are young, for old age is happy only in that re flected happiness of recollection.

studied his picture through half-closed, critical eyes. "You have painted it looked down at the shapely head. Ah.

the longing to put her hands upon it.

to run her fingers through the tousled no! "Perhaps you are tired; perhaps while she could not see him clearly.

"No one can help loving Nora."

"No," in a small voice,

"But what earthly chance have 1?"

Then she vember. Benedicite?" smiling.

over too many times," the lake.

The padre spread his hands. "What him be gone. It was he.'

before your release.

you said you were sorry.

had taken up his defense!'

word for it." "You are laughing. Ah, I know! I does he look dissipated?" "No-o."

flirts with a pretty woman when he chooses, he smokes the finest tobacco there is when he chooses; and he gives them all up when he chooses. He is like the seasons; he comes and he goes, and nobody can change his

"He has had no affair?" "Why, Courtlandt hasn't any heart. blood in circulation; that's all. I am the most intimate friend he has, and yet I know no more than you how he ves and where he goes She let her hand fall from his

Abbott looked. A woman was coming serenely down the path from the wooded promontory. a woman undeniably handsome in a fashioned, with a touch of vivid scarlet on her hat and a most tantalizing Desimone, fresh from her morning bath and a substantial breakfast. The errand that had brought her from Aix es-Bains was confessedly a merciful ne. But she possessed the dramatist's instinct to prolong a situation Thus, to make her act of mercy seem infinitely larger than it was, she was determined first to cast the Apple of Discord into this charming corner of man knows, is the only thing a woman can throw with any accuracy. The artist enatched up his brushes, and ruined the painting forthwith for all time. The foreground was, in his opinion, beyond redemption; so, with a savage humor, he rapidly limned in score of impossible trees, turned midday into sunset, with a rlot of colors which would have made the Chinese New Year in Canton a drab and sober event in comparison. He hated Flora Desimone, as all Nora's adherents properly did, but with a hatred wholly reflective and adapted to Nora's

CRADLE OF AMERICAN NATION

That Brought Over on the Mayflower May Properly Be Given That -Title.

A tenement might have sheltered it -no palace. Still it's America's birthplace. It's the cradle of a new nation, says the Mother's Magazine in an interesting article on cradles. Brought over on the Mayflower, it sheltered the first child, Peregrine White, who was born to the Pilgrims in Plymouth bay in 1620. Not a bit imposing, is it? But it's a rare nest, "I've a good mind to chuck it into and the most valuable in America, if more." He flung down the brushes. "I'm a fool, Celeste, a fool. I'm crying can show us their cradle. We ought for the moon, that's what the matter to feel mighty proud of it. There's What's the use of beating about something a bit immortal about these the bush? You know as well as I do strips of wicker. For the matter of that, there is about all old cradles, Her heart contracted, and for a little

They come down from past generations. They've seen life. They've been rocked for hundreds of years in old homes. They've been associated with great business-the making of "Twenty-six!" smiling.

"Yes." "If only she'd been stand-offish, like hese other singers, why, I'd have been all right today. But she's such a brick! She's such a good fellow! She treats us all alike; sings when we ask her an the little things are everything; to; always ready for a romp. Think they are the daily routine, the expectthe necessary things. What you cure the other night! And we marched call the big things in life are accidents. And, oh! I have pride." She a little lamb. Barefooted in the grass! When a man marries he doesn't want bosom; for the padre's directness this a wife half so much as a good commorning had stirred her deeply.

> "No; I understand all you say." Her hand rested a trifle heavier upon his 'Honor, anger, valor, fire,' as Stevenson says. Hang the picture; what am I going to do with it?"

Mr. Courtlandt?" "Boys together," playing a light tattoo with his mahlstick.

"How old is he?" "About thirty-two or three."

questioned him last night. Had I wild? "Well," with mock gravity, "I shouldn't like to be the tiger that crossed his path. Wild; that's the should say dissipated."

"Courtlandt? Come, now, Celeste;

It's a mechanical device to keep his shoulder. She was glad that he did not know. "But look!" she cried in warning.

cedar-tinted linen dress, exquisitely flash of scarlet ankle. It was Flora Eden. The Apple of Discord, as every

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

Nora bowed her heard and he put a Celeste stood behind Abbott and

> I simply can't paint any | we measure by history. Not another country in the world > > historic or unknown.

"It's all rot, this talk about affinimen and women who have made his

"It's a rummy old world. Here I've gone alone all these years . . "Well, that's a long time. Never

"And there's not the least chance in

"You never can tell until you put it

"Do you think I have a chance? Is "Who knows?" She wanted him to have it over with, to learn the truth that to Nora Harrigan he would never be more than an amiable comrade. He would then have none to turn to but her. What mattered it if her own his shoulder, so lightly that he was t possible that Nora may care a little for me?" He turned his head toward bothered my head about a woman. Selfish, perhaps. Had a good time, came and went as I pleased. And then I met Nora,"

"Who indeed!"

o the test.'

her eagerly shoulder. "Nora would be that kind of a wife

"'Honor, anger, valor, fire,'" Celeste repeated slowly. "Yes, that is Nora." He twirled the middle button of his A bitter little smile moved her lips as cassock." The eyes see and the ears she recalled the happenings of the last two days. But no; he must find out for himself; he must meet the hurt from Nora, not from her. "How long, Abbott, have you known your friend

> "He is very rich?" "Oceans of money; throws it away, but not fast enough to get rid of it."

"He is what you say in English . . .

"He drinks when he chooses, he