EAST CLACKAMAS FAIR FOR 1915

Big Meeting Called for Sept. 24th

The committee in charge of the First Annual East Clackamas Fair have arranged to hold a big public meeting, Thursday afternoon, Sept. 24th, at 2 P. M., at the Family Theatre in Estacada.

Everyone in Eastern Clackamas county is asked to be present and arrangements will be made at that time for the second annual fair to be held in 1915. A new committee will be elected to handle the next fair, and it should comprise men and women from all sections, and owing to the large amount of work that will have to be done, it should be a larger committee than the present one.

In order to make a big success of the next fair, it is necessary to begin now, for much work has to be done long in advance to insure good exhibits and a properly conducted exhibition.

The present committee has made a most wonderful showing for the initial show and it will keep their successors hustling to improve on their work. This committee should be retained as a nucleus on any new committee that may be elected, if they will accept the responsibilities again.

The present committee begs to present herewith the following financial statement of the First Annual East Clackamas Fair:

Receipts
Admission fees.....	$141.00
Advertising.....	79.50
Concessions and donations	38.52
Total $259.02
Disbursements
Premium lists.....	$113.50
Tents.....	59.75
Badges, tags and tickets	36.88
Sundries.....	34.67
Total $244.80
Balance on hand, $14.22.

This report is especially good, as no money was contributed from outside sources, but the fair was self supporting. The thanks of the entire community are due this committee.

The new pastor is expected to assume his duties the first Sunday in October or possibly a week earlier.

The Progress and the people of Estacada, will heartily welcome the newcomers in their work.

During the evening progressive whist was played, the highest scores being won by Mrs. E. W. Bartlett and Fred Bartholomew. Mrs. R. H. Currin and A. E. Sparks received the second highest honors.

Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames R. Morse, R. M. Standish, J. W. Reed, E. W. Bartlett, A. E. Sparks, R. H. Currin, E. E. Saling, I. D. Wright, Mrs. H. V. Adix, Miss Helen Bartlett and Fred Bartholomew.

There he met Miss Hulve. The many friends of Mr. Woodie wish him and his bride success and happiness. They will reside near Troutdale, Oregon.

Winners of the Eugenic Contest

East Clackamas may well be proud of the records which her entries made in the Eugenic department last week.

Of the thirty-two entries, the eight highest were: Alice Hicinbotham, 96½; Katherine Ford, 96; Charles Butler, 96; John Standish, 96; Jean Adix, 96; Raymond Devore, 95½; Walter Smith, 95 and Doratha Bittner, 95.

Drs. Haviland, Morse, Adix and Wells, together with Miss Eva Wash, who judged the mental development of the contestants, constituted the Board of Examiners.

While much enthusiasm was shown this year in the Eugenic Contest, it is to be hoped that next year the community may be even more interested in the "Better Babies Question."

A large share of the success is due to Mrs. D. M. Marshall's committee, composed of Mesdames Bates, Sparks, Bartlett, Morse, Standish and Miss Dillon.
