

Some Shooter.

Bob Currin admits the following and there were witnesses

Currins had a chicken that refused to board at the parental domicile preferring the tall and uncut. Bob laid for that piece of poultry when hunting Chinas. He finally spotted it disappearing into a clump of fern and cut loose with a full load of No. 6 — among the dead, dying and wounded were one motherly old speckled hen and ten downy, fluffy, innocent little chicks. The intended victim was last seen headed towards Hale's ranch.

Dr. H. Steiner of Sandy was an Estacada visitor this week.

C. W. Devore of Estacada returned Wednesday from a week's business trip to Drain, Or.

J. W. Dowty of Alspaugh recently returned from an extended visit in eastern Oregon.

Wm. Bletch and family of Springwater, are selling out and intend to move to Portland in the near future.

The Firwood School will give a Thanksgiving program Nov. 25 th. at 2 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Sevier of Viola spent the week end at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. Hicinbotham of River Mill.

Garfield Smith of Firwood has returned from Portland, accompanied by his sister Edith, who will spend a few days with her parents.

The Rev. Paranogan, the Methodist S. S. organizer of Salem, preached the sermon at the Viola Church last Sunday, which was greatly enjoyed.

A crowd attended the dance and basketball practice at the Dodge Hall, last Saturday evening. The hall is being ceiled and calomined and a new entry-way is being built. There will be another dance at the hall next Saturday night and the ladies will bring baskets and serve coffee and lunch at midnight.

Mrs. Lawrence Crudinsky of Springwater has returned to her home after an absence of several weeks, and is gradually improving in health after her long illness.

Mr. and Mrs. John Githens of Alspaugh entertained Mr. and Mrs. Louis Yunker of Hogan, Miss Mamie Heiple and Mrs. Lulu Sparks, last Sunday. Inasmuch as John Githens reports the capture this week of a new species of duck, with a bill like a chicken, it is possible that a chicken and duck dinner was served.

Thanksgiving Dinner

Mgr Laurvy of the Estacada Hotel, announces that he will serve one of his famous Thanksgiving dinners from 5:30 to 7 P.M. Nov. 26th. It will be necessary that all parties availing themselves of this treat, shall notify Mgr. Laurvy in advance and make reservation.

Tom Morton of Estacada expects to witness the U. of O. and O. A. C. foot ball game, next Saturday at Corvallis.

Carl Duus of Criterion, Oregon returned home this week, after spending a few weeks visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Duus of Garfield.

"Docie" Palmateer of Garfield returned last week from a successful shoot on the Columbia Slough, with a big goose and a string of ducks.

Albert Adlon of South Estacada has just finished his new house and has just received a Kirsten stump puller and is about to begin the clearing of his suburban acres.

The revival services being conducted every evening by the Christian church are being well attended and are doing a good work. These meetings will be continued indefinitely.

Born, last week to Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Young of Garfield, an 8½ lb. daughter. Mr. Young is the contractor and builder of the Hotel LaBarre Vue which is fast nearing completion.

B. F. Bullard of Currinsville recently suffered a loss of several goats, although some of the indications pointed to other animals. This is the second report of the kind this week and will probably end in a dog killing.

The Portland papers this week chronicled the burning of the home in Sellwood of a family by the name of Lovelace, in which a child was killed. This house was owned by E. S. Shankland of Currinsville and partly covered by insurance. Mr. Shankland had no trouble in collecting the insurance, but it far from covered the loss.

The Harvest Festival, held a week ago last Sunday at the Springwater Presbyterian Church, was a grand success. Rev. Montgomery of Portland gave the morning address and the chorus sang several excellent selections. In the afternoon a musical program was rendered.

Dr. Morse also tests eyes and fits glasses. Office over drug store.

School Notes

Gladys Carpenter, School Editor

If a number of high school students are seen Friday, "some in rags and some in tags and some in velvet gowns," do not think the beggars have come to town, but remember that November 20th is "Rough-Neck Day" at school.

Miss Sadie Hornbrook is directing the Glee Club one evening a week. Mr. Wright is to take charge of the high school chorus after football season is over.

The class in dairy farming is making butter once a week under the supervision of Mr. Guthrie. The cream is procured from one of the Currinsville farmers and, after being made into first class butter, is sold at market prices.

Tiling for the draining of the north part of the school yard has arrived, and boys are busy doing the ditching.

Arrangements are being made with the Agricultural College for the conducting of "A Farmers' Week" here, some time in February.

The Websterians will give the following programme in the Assembly Hall Friday afternoon at 2:05. Everyone is invited.

Earl Tracy has been absent from school the past week.

The Sunshine Circle of Springwater met at the home of Mrs. Earl Kilgore last Thursday, but owing to the stormy weather, few were able to attend.

An entertainment and box social will be given next Saturday night, Nov. 21st, at the Garfield Grange, for the benefit of the Garfield Band. A $1 box of candy will be given as a prize to the highest bidder for a box. Everyone is invited.

Mrs. Fred Horner has purchased a Tamworth pig, more commonly known as a "razorback" which is said to produce the finest of bacon. Owing to failure on the part of the shipper, to have the hog inspected, it was returned for inspection by the state authorities, but will be re-shipped soon.

A large party of Garfield farmers, comprising John Duus, Frank Thomas, Haas Tracy, Fred Bates, Crawford brothers, Elmer Beebe, and Clyde English, who are ranging cattle in the mountains beyond, left this week for a trip, to round up and succor such of the cattle as were reported to be storm bound near Currin Creek. These farmers have for years past, found cattle raising on the public lands to be a profitable business and are now building a big community barn and corrals, for permanent storage of food supplies.
