Born, to Mr. and Mrs. W. M.
Hobson of Barton, November 9th, a son.

Earl Gibson visited a few days last week at the home of his uncle, H. S. Gibson, of Eagle Creek.

Frank Cummings of Viola was called to Portland suddenly last week to see his brother, who is very ill.

Two million salmon eggs were received by Manager Benson at the River Mill hatchery this week from the Bonneville state hatchery.

Chas. Duncan of Garfield is erecting a new house, opposite his place, to be occupied, on completion, by his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. James Duncan.

Viola reports over $14. as netted from the proceeds of the recent basket social held there. The program, in charge of Miss Myrtle Woodle, was a big success.

John Githen's of Alspaugh is already planning to acquire more than his share of the next East Clackamas Fair's prizes. He is preparing a fine piece of beaver dam land, to raise the best of vegetables.

Mrs. S. D. Allen of Missoula, Mont., son and daughter, are visiting at the homes of her father and brothers, C. L. and E. D.
Allen of Estacada and C. S. Allen of Cazadero.

H. G. Trowbridge of Garfield had a fire scare recently, when a hanging lamp dropped in the house scattering flames in all directions.
Fortunately only a linen table cloth was damaged and the fire which started on the ceiling was quickly extinguished.

Mrs. C. M. Folsom of Springwater was called to Walla Walla, Wash., about ten days ago to attend her infant grandson, who was kicked by a horse and severely injured. He was taken from his home at Dayton to St. Mary's hospital in Walla Walla, immediately.

Ed. Ficken and Clarence Jubb of Viola had a bad scare last week, when their horse ran away and threw both of them out. Aside from a broken buggy, no harm was done.

Mrs. M. Delap of Portland has moved to Estacada and intends to make it her future home.

Miss Florence Schultz of Crawfordsville, Ind., arrived in Estacada last week, to make her permanent home with her brother, J. M.
Schultz of Garfield. J. M. has been thoroughly cleaning and renovating
"The Dingy Dump" for months past, to insure his sister's permanent residence here. Many of the local people know Miss Schultz as she visited here a year or so ago and the neighbors have given her a hearty welcome.
