Creek, visited her friend, Miss

week.

Schools, will occur from December 9th to 12th, instead of in January, as formerly announced.

etable class, at the coming East

Card of Thanks

I wish to thank my relatives and friends for their many kindnesses shown to me and my children, during our recent bereavement.

J. A. Marchbank

Rev. A. S. Henderson of Portland, spent a few days at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Henderson of Elwood.
While there he preached a couple of times at the local church.

A dancing party was given at the George Hall last Wednesday night, and a "shadow social." Each girl furnished a lunch and the boys bought the lunch, from the shadow of the girl.

The corner property in Garfield, formerly owned by G. Krigbaum, is being cleared. While this clearing means the elimination of a picture-que grove, it will look much better under fruit or grain.

Bill Cary is the happiest man in Estacada this week, as he is now the proud father of a daughter, born Nov. 24th. Mrs. Cary and the baby are doing nicely and with Mrs. Annie Morton acting as nurse, they will soon be about.

The stock yards and hog buyer are both needed, as every day sees hogs butchered and taken into the Portland market. A. D. McMillan of Eagle Creek, butchered and shipped nine hogs and a veal this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Douglas of Eagle Creek gave a dance to a select crowd at their home last Saturluncheon was served.

Noble McMillan has just received the appointment as head nurse for the newly arrived calf at the Ewing homestead, at the Upper Dam. Noble is anxiously awaiting the ninth day, when he can look into its newly opened, soft, brown eyes.

A complaint has been made against the trappers who have been setting their coyote traps in or near the trails, beyond Garfield, as one of the neighboring ranchers got his horse entangled in one, this week. If equal carelessness was used in placing cougar or bear traps, it might prove a serious affair.

Mrs. W. P. Ferrel of Barton sent to this office two photos of the new Barton bridge, which is almost finished. This bridge is a much larger and stronger structure than any that has been built in this part of the county for some years. If the celebration at the opening of this bridge is proportionately larger than the dedication ceremony at the George Bridge, there will be a big crowd.
