

Buy Your Wife A Fine Present, And One That Will Please The Family.

Oak Bedroom Set $40.
Includes beautiful Dresser, Chiffonier, Bed and 2 Chairs.

Oak Dining Room Set $52.
Includes Table, Buffet and 6 Chairs.

See the Christmas Toys in our Windows.

Estacada Furniture Co.

Green Trading Stamps. UNDERTAKERS

Order Your Xmas Suit or Overcoat

Now

$14.

Select your material, either Balmacaan, Melton, Worsted, Cheviots, Oxford, Kersey or Chinchilla. Made to your order and latest styles.

R. G. MARCHBANK - ESTACADA

Sadie Hornibrook

Piano and Vocal Instructor
405 12th St. Portland, Ore. or Progress.

$2 a day $10 a week

The Hotel Estacada

MODERN CONVENIENCES

One of the most delightful
Resorts on the Coast
Local and Tourist Trade Solicited

Individual Farm Stationery

250 Letter-heads $2.50
250 Envelopes

Estacada Progress

News Notes From All Sections

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Chas Freeman of Elwood, Nov. 26th, an 8 pound daughter.

Mrs. Howlett and Mrs. Kaliff of Eagle Creek entertained a number of friends at dinner last Thursday.

J. H. Keller, a brother of Geo. Keller of Dodge, has moved his family to that place.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Dunlop spent a few hours at their Garfield home during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Githens of Canby, are visiting with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Githens of Alspaugh.

Mrs. C. N. Folsom of Springwater, who was called to Walla Walla, Wash., a short time ago, has returned to her home.

Jas. Lamber of Firwood died November 26th., after a lingering illness. He is survived by a wife and seven children.

Mr. and Mrs. Halley and children of Portland were Thanksgiving visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Wright of Estacada.

Roy Alspaugh of Alspaugh surprised his friends by getting married last week. The details, including the name of the lucky girl is not known at this office yet.

Ray Eschleman left with a pack train of supplies for the Cary Hot Springs last week, where he will remain for a time attending to some work there.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. DeShazer of Firwood entertained a number of Dover friends last Thursday evening, with dancing, games and refreshments.

The special road meeting held in the Firwood Hall, for District 48, voted a five mill special tax and recommended Auton Millar as supervisor.

Judging from reports, there have been over 100 hogs butchered in this section in the past week. There will probably be plenty left over for the new stock yards.

The Garfield Grange met last Saturday and enjoyed a Thanksgiving program with the usual good dinner. The general discussion was regarding the fruits best adapted to that part of the country.

The many friends of J. C. Peterson of Springwater will be sorry to hear of his having had to return to the Portland hospital again for further treatments. It is hoped he will soon be back and in good health again.

Chris Bittner of Elwood, until recently road supervisor in that district, made a trip to Oregon City Monday, to settle a dispute as to the legality of their recent special road meeting, at which it is claimed some illegal votes were cast.

Frank Millard, road supervisor of Springwater, last Wednesday received instructions from the County Court to keep the Springwater Hill closed until the work is completed, which will be soon, providing the weather will permit of an early resumption of the work.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Gibson of Barton entertained a number of friends at a Thanksgiving dinner.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Zion Church, met last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. J. C. Duus.

Miss Mamie Heiple of Eagle Creek is visiting friends and relatives at Logan this week.

Mrs. P. Nelson's two daughters and sister of Portland were called to her bedside last week, as she is seriously ill at her home in Elwood.

Mrs. Emma Fitzgerald and Mrs. McDermott of Portland were the Thanksgiving guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Githens of Alspaugh.

E. B. King, who has been spending the summer and fall on his farm at Dodge, has gone to San Diego, Calif. for the winter.

Prin. B. F. Ford and family of Estacada, spent a three day Thanksgiving holiday, visiting relatives in Oregon City and Portland.

Guttridge brothers of Springwater are hauling over a carload of winter apples into the Portland market.

W. P. Ferrel of Barton made a trip into the foothills beyond Garfield this week, to look after some cattle in that vicinity and to buy a few head from H. B. Sarver.

Mrs. M. H. Maher of Springwater is in a Portland hospital, where she was taken to be operated upon. Her many friends hope for her speedy recovery.

I. N. Gard of Barton is going into the poultry business and with a new set of tools recently received from California, he is constructing coops and chicken houses.

Miss Mary Whiting of Garfield left this week for an extended visit at her former home in St. Paul and among friends and relatives in Chicago.

The P. R. L. & P. Co. wish to announce that they will make a rate of $1. round trip from Estacada to Portland, from Dec. 7th to 12th, for the benefit of those wishing to take in the Livestock Show.

Seven to eight inches of snow is reported from the neighborhood of Linn's Mill, at the foot of the mountains above Garfield. The cattle which are being ranged nearby are coming down in search of food.

The Garfield Round Table met this week at the home of Mrs. H. G. Trowbridge. Owing to the absence of several of the members, who were on the program, the topic of "The Legal Courts" was not taken up in detail.

Guy T. Hunt of Garfield is going to plant twelve acres to potatoes, for the California seed market. Owing to moth and scab in that state, it is necessary for the growers to get fresh seed stock every other year. Mr. Hunt is planting 5 acres of "Garnets", 2 acres of "Early Rose" and 5 acres of "Montana Whites".

Miss Opal McDaniel of Eagle Creek spent Thanksgiving with her folks in Portland.

A. W. Cooke and wife of Damascus were the guests of Mrs. Howlett of Eagle Creek recently.

Miss Nouna Vallen of Oregon City spent Thanksgiving with her parents in Elwood.

Miss Echo Githens of Alspaugh, who is teaching near Hogan, has been spending the Thanksgiving holidays at home.

R. C. Deming of Garfield reports having picked a good-sized dish of red raspberries from his bushes this week.

S. J. Eddy and wife of Portland were the Thanksgiving guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Gibson of Eagle Creek.

Henry Beers of Alspaugh claims the county checker championship and wants to compete against some of the Estacada aspirants.

A. D. Mc Millan and wife of Eagle Creek, were the guests of Portland relatives over Thanksgiving.

Mrs. N. B. Ecker of Independence, Or. spent a few days last week, inspecting the new grand daughter at the W. F. Cary home in Estacada.

J. W. Dowty and John Githens of Alspaugh shipped over 200 turkeys and geese to the Portland market last week and received a fair price and have plenty for Xmas.

F. E. Morrison, who recently purchased the Stubb's place in Currinsville, was suddenly called to Ft. Scott, Kansas last week, on account of the death of his mother.

The ladies of the C. I. C., the Christian Church and the Methodists Ladies Aid Society, will take turns serving lunches at the C. I. C. Rooms during Farmers' Week.

Estacada merchants are decorating their windows with Christmas goods in anticipation of Farmers' Week. The Cary Mercantile and the Estacada Furniture Co's windows look like Santa Claus' headquarters.

A Thanksgiving family reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Woodle in Estacada, with eighteen guests, the majority of them being their children and grandchildren.

Noah Stingley and Frank Boyer of Eagle Creek killed a covote near the Bates place last Friday. It covotes get scarce down there, several farmers will be glad to have the hunters kill dogs in this vicinity.

No news items have been received at this office for several weeks from George, or Cazadero. Will some public spirited resident phone or send in such items, for the Progress wants to print all of the news from all sections.

J. A. Marchbank, who has been in Estacada for the past week, left this week for his home at N. Yakima, Washington, with a stop over of a day or so at Camas. He would prefer to live near Estacada, but the Yakima climate agrees with him better.