Now that arrangements are being made to hold a "Spelling Bee" among the various schools in Clackamas County, it might not be amiss for the pupils to study their lessons aloud at home, for the benefit of the parents, for the majority of us could not stand up against a sixth grade class, in the average "bee". There was a time when "spelling bees" were a popular form of amusement among the older folks and such an affair would prove an instructive, interesting and mighty amusing entertainment now.

The County Court are now going after the automobile trucks, with the intention of limiting their loads, as carried over the county's highways. This is a wise move, for an auto truck, with the suction caused by its corrugated rubber tires, at high speed, can do more harm to a good road than a dozen farm wagons with brakes set. As regards paying taxes for the upkeep of roads, it is doubtful if any of the auto truck owners doing business thruout the county, contribute much of anything. Incidentally this move probably will not make the P. R. L. & P. Co. overly angry, for the auto truck is hurting their business to some extent and as the railway company are the county's biggest taxpayer, it deserves some protection.

A New Years Resolution:- Resolved that during 1915 I will try to patronize my home merchants more, that I will work for and in unison with my neighbors and that I will sheath my hammer and stop "knocking".

The recent formation of the Cattlemen's Union in Garfield, is in in keeping with the tendency of the times and indicates conclusively that there is a strongly felt need for cooperation among the farmers of this community. The only way to make a good profit on that which you have to sell, is to raise first class produce and cooperate in both the growing and marketing.

Clackamas County will spend $232,000 for roads in 1915. The spending of this money lies in the hands of the three members of the County Court. These men do not claim to be expert road builders and consequently believe that the salary now paid to the County Road Engineer, Mr. Hobson, is necessary. They are right and the tax payers should uphold them No private individuals or corporations would think of spending over a quarter million dollars, without competent advice and no more should a county,

Farmer's Week Recipes

As furnished by Mrs. Alice M. Dolman during the Domestic Science Course.

STUFFED ONIONS—Cook the onions until they are tender in boiling salted water, take out the hearts and chop the hearts and add to that chopped hard boiled egg, two tablespoons of grated cheese and enough 1-1 white sauce to moisten it. Fill the cavity in the onion and cover the top of the onion with dried bread crumbs, put a bit of butter on top of each and finish cooking in the oven. Serve with 1-1 white sauce.

PEAS PUDDING—One cup of cooked pea pulp, that has been put through a seive, two tablespoons of cream, one egg yolk, salt and pepper to taste, grease custard cups and put it in, set in a pan of hot water, and bake or steam until firm. Serve with a 1-1 white sauce.

"1-1" SAUCE—One cup of milk, heated in the double boiler, rub one tablespoon of flour with one tablespoon of butter, salt to taste, when the milk is hot, stir the paste into it and cook for twenty minutes in the double boiler.

SPANISH RICE—One-half cup of rice, one onion, one cup of tomatoe pulp and juice, one chopped pemento, dash of cayenne, salt to taste, two tablespoons of butter, cook the rice about 15 minutes over direct heat with water enough to cover, drain off the water and add the rest of the ingredients and finish cooking in the double boiler.

CARROT—Four cups of diced carrots, four and one-half cups of boiling water, three small slices of bacon, cut into small pieces; two tablespoons of sugar one teaspoon of salt, one tablespoon of butter, cook all together until thoroughly tender, then add enough flour to make thin sauce. Serve hot.

APPLE DUMPLING, Small Recipe—Three-fourth cup of flour, one-fourth teaspoon of salt, three-fourth teaspoon baking powder, two tablespoons of lard, one tablespoon of butter, two tablespoons of milk, make this into a dough, rub from two to four tablespoons of sugar, one tablespoon of butter and make a paste of it, peel the apples and remove the core and fill up the space with the butter and sugar mixture. Roll out the dough and fit it around the apple, place in a pan and put a small amount of water around it and bake.
