

We Wish You
A Happy and Prosperous
 NEW YEAR

Come in and get Your 1915 Calendar

Now that the Holidays are over, we are offering some very attractive bargains. Dont forget our line of French Blue Enameled
 Ware and the $50. Range, that is to be given away.

Estacada Furniture Co.

Green Traoing Stamps Undertakers

I Wish You
A Happy New Year

R. G. Marchbank

Headquarters For

CANDY, CIGARS, LUNCHES
 FRUITS and SOFT DRINKS

Special For Saturday

Women's

Knitted Toques 25c

Park & Closser

Hunt Bldg.

Estacada

Sadie Hornibrook
 Piano and Vocal Instructor
 405 12th St. Portland, Ore. or Progress.

News Notes From All Sections

Miss Fay Myers of California is spending the holidays at the home of H. Dillon of Estacada

Paul Womer of Oregon City spent Christmas at the family home in Estacada.

Mrs. Emily Taylor of Portland, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Louisa Harders of George.

Miss Myrtle Woodle, had an Xmas tree for her pupils at the Viola school last Thursday afternoon.

Chas. C. Miller of Estacada has been laid up for the past week with a bad attack of la grippe, but is able to be up now.

Thos. Eaden of the Viola store entertained his children from Logan, Stone and Castle Rock over Christmas.

A New Years Eve dance and Christmas tree will be held at the George Social & Commercial Club and everyone is invited.

Chas. Hicinbothom and wife of River Mill spent Christmas at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sevier of Viola.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Trapp of Garfield, are spending the holidays at the home of her mother, at Woodburn, Or.

Mrs. Mary L. Hill and daughter Harriett of Portland are spending the holidays at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Irwin D Wright of Estacada.

C. H. Bartholomew, wife and family of Heppner, Or., spent the holidays at the homes of his sisters, Mrs. E. E. and C. C. Saling of Currinsville.

Don Newman and Charlie Kandle of Tillamook and Cloverdale have been spending a few days in Estacada and vicinity, visiting with friends and relatives.

Mrs. L. Glover of Eagle Creek, has returned home, after spending a couple of weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Geo. L. Story of Oregon City.

Wm. Palmer of South Estacada has built an addition to his house. His sister and her husband, Mrs. and Mr. O. H. McClung of Port Crescent, Wash. have moved here and will make their home with him.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jones of Sellwood spent the holidays at the home of E. S. Shankland of Currinsville. His mother Mrs. Nancy Shankland, has returned for an extended visit also.

At the meeting of the Garfield Grange, held last Saturday, L. G. Palmateer was elected to serve as Grand Master. At the next meeting, Saturday January 23rd, there will be held the installation of officers and the Garfield band will take part in the program.

Ralph Lemon of Garfield is seriously ill in a Portland hospital.

Oliver Hendron of Dodge recently trapped an extra large coyote.

Walter Snuffin of Garfield recently went to a Portland hospital to undergo a minor operation.

Chas Horgor of Eagle Creek, is visiting at the home of Henry Klinker of George.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ewing of the Upper Dam, entertained a number of the young folks at a party last Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schramek and daughter Edith of Portland are visiting at the home of Henry Smith in George.

Miss Kittie Reagan of Portland is spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs T. J. Reagan, of Estacada Heights.

Mr. and Mrs August Paulsen and children of Standfield, Or are visiting at the Julius Paulsen home in George.

Bill Hunt of Garfield, who has been working in Portland for some time past, has returned to the parental homestead.

A. W. Bullis of Kimball, S. D. is visiting at the home of his brother-in-law, W. D. Hawthorn, of Estacada.

Mrs. J. F. Standish and daughter Margaret of Portland, spent Christmas at the home of her daughter, Mrs. S. D. Dunlop of Garfield.

Russell Betz, formerly of Estacada, who is attending the University of Oregon, was a Christmas guest at the Reagan home on Estacada Heights.

The Currinsville school children gave a fine Christmas entertainment last Wednesday night and celebrated with a glowing, candy laden Christmas tree.

Mrs. H. V. Adix and children of Estacada are spending the holidays at the home of her parents in Portland. Dr. Adix is making the trip to and from Portland each day.

A happy family reunion was held Christmas day at the Cazadero Lodge, when Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Allen of Estacada entertained their three sons and their families.

A family reunion was held Christmas day at the home of F. J. Harkenrider in Estacada, as their children and grandchildren from Portland and elsewhere were home for the Christmas dinner.

The third carload of hogs, cattle and sheep, was shipped from Estacada last Monday noon. Buyer Lucke hopes to make a similar shipment next Monday. The railway company are rebuilding the chute in the stockyards, as the present one is too narrow to force a stubborn pig up.

Mrs. Pierson of Idaho, is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. D. Burnett of Eagle Creek.

The Rev. Kady of Willamette University preached last Sunday afternoon and evening at the Viola M. E. church.

Mrs. Iona Starr of Portland, is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Joyner of George.

Miss Gertrude Morrow of Mc Minnville spent Christmas at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Morrow, of Estacada.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Dunlop of Garfield entertained last Wednesday evening with a delightful dancing and card party

Three daughters and a friend from Portland have been visiting at the home of B Tannler of Viola, during the holidays

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Whitcomb and Miss Lynch of Garfield, spent Christmas day at the home of their son, Walter D. Whitcomb in Portland.

S. D. Allen of Missoula, Mont., wife and daughters returned home Wednesday, after an extended visit among relatives here, and the son is visiting C. S. Allen at Cazadero

The many friends of John C. Peterson of Springwater will be pleased to know that he has recovered from his recent operation and returned to Estacada last Wednesday.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Eagle Creek Church, will give a "Box Social" and "Watch Party" New Years Eve. Everyone is invited to attend and start the new year right.

Geo Currin of Heppner, Or., visited a few days among relatives and friends in Currinsville. He is contemplating locating in this vicinity and it is to be hoped he will not look elsewhere.

Heinie Cruse and Wilbur Beattie were Estacada visitors this week. It will be remembered that Cruse Bros. lost a horse about two years ago and Henry Schmidt of George, who found it, recently learned its ownership and returned the animal.

Supervisor Benson and assistant, Morton, of the River Mill Hatchery are getting their hands warmed up again, after breaking ice in the hatching troughs steadily for five days and nights, but 'twas not in vain, as they saved the little fishes.

L. A. and F. F. Brandes and Leroy D. Walker, stockholders and president of the Estacada State Bank, made a business trip to Estacada last Wednesday. They are highly pleased with the present condition of the bank, as many thousands of dollars in new accounts have been added in the past sixty days, and the business is growing rapidly.