News Notes From All Sections

B. O. Roswell of Estacada, in anticipation of the Cleanup Day, has had the old apple trees and stumps removed from his yard, has torn down the chicken coops and had a new fence built, which has greatly improved the appearance of "Or-card Home".

J. L. Cox and wife of Portland are spending a few weeks at the home of Wm. Weller in Springwater.

Mrs. Claude Devore and two children of Estacada returned home last Saturday after an absence of about ten weeks. Last December she was called to Grass Valley, Calif. prior to the death of her father. She and the youngest child remained there for some months, then visited other California points, including the San Francisco Fair and returned via Drain, Oregon.

The young people of Currinsville and of the Estacada High school enjoyed a dancing party last Friday evening at the Odd Fellows' Hall. The music, furnished by the Currinsville orchestra, was extra good and with Mrs. Frazier as chaperon, the young folks had an enjoyable time.

There will be a timely discussion at the Church of Jesus Christ on Sunday evening, March 14th, at 6:30 P. M., subject, "Are New Revelations Necessary at the Present Date and Age?"

Don't forget the C. I. C. Dance at the Estacada Pavilion next Saturday evening, March 13th. Steib's Harmony Four will furnish the music and supper will be served. Tickets $1. with supper included.

The winners in the inter-sectional spelling contest, held at the Estacada schools last Tuesday, were Bertha Devore and Ernest Rynning.

The next meeting of the Dorcas society will be held at the home of Mrs. A. M. Stephens, Thursday, March 18th.

Next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, at the Garfield Memorial Church, representative Guy T. Hunt of Garfield will occupy the pulpit and give a general talk on the recent legislation enacted by the legislature. A special musical program has been arranged and all are invited to attend.

Negotiations are under way by C. W. Devore of Estacada for the purchase of the Sparks house on the corner of Main and 5th Sts.

A number of the young folks of the High School gave a surprise party on Mc Colly Dale, in honor of his 18th birthday, last Wednesday night at the home of Le Roy Gard of Estacada.

R. M. Standish, Estacada, Agent.

H. G. Trowbridge of the Garfield Mercantile Co., who recently made arrangements to handle the local cream supply, has closed a deal with the T. S. Townsend Creamery Co. of Portland to handle the product. Customers are advised that cream can be left at the store on Thursdays and Fridays.

It is reported that a dance will be held at the Dodge Hall next Saturday evening. As this is the same night as the C. I. C. dance, it will mean a shortage of attendance and consequent financial loss for both dances. It would be wise if hereafter the various districts would ascertain before hand, as to other dancing dates.
