News Notes From All Sections

N. S. Laurry of the Hotel Estacada, is the recent purchaser of the 40 acre Wesley Shannon place, in Springwater. The new owner will not enter the farming business now, as the place is rented.

Mr. P. B. Dorais of Portland, the new owner of the 120 acre Wasco Shannon place in Springwater, which was recently sold by Wm Allen, is moving onto the property.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Eddy of Portland, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Gibson of Eagle Creek, last Saturday and Sunday.

J. N. Gard of Barton, has gone into the poultry business, not as an amateur or in a small way, but as an industry. His five poultry houses are almost completed and are being filled with white leghorn chickens, pigeons and belgian hares, the latter department being headed by the famous hare, Sir Albert. In honor of his many friends, the owner is naming his prize rabbits after them.

J. R. iter of Barton, while on a recent visit to Portland, met with an accident which resulted in the breaking of a leg. He is at present in the Good Samaritan Hospital. The details of the accident have not been learned as yet.

Dance Postponed

The Eagle Creek dance, under the auspices of the Currinsville orchestra, advertised for March 20th, has been postponed one week, until March 27th.

Behind Our Feed

is an absolute guarantee of grade and cleanliness. Every sack of it is all pure grain of high quality, making it better for your stock and really cheaper for you. We can refer to many stock owners who will have no other feed but ours. They have good reasons for their choice.

Estacada Lbr. & Produce Co.

Miss Norma Randolph and Miss Dorothea Craft of Viola, spent Saturday and Sunday in Estacada, as the guests of their teacher, Miss Myrtle Woodlee. While here they enjoyed the Junior class play and the moving picture show. Bruce Randolph also took in the entertainments as the guest of his brother Worth.

Mrs. John Githens of Alsapah spent a few days last week, visiting her mother, Mrs. Lawson in Oregon City.

L. Tenny of Springwater, is reported on the sick list.

In honor of Mr. and Mrs. L. Pronyitz of Barton, who are soon to leave there, a number of their friends tendered them a surprise party last Saturday evening. Owing to inclement weather, not as many people were able to attend as would have liked, but all enjoyed a pleasant evening and left wishing their guests success in their new home.
