Estacada, Oregon.

News Notes From All Sections

Beginning April 1st the City of Estacada will pay for the street lighting, which has formerly been financed by the C. I. C.

A brand new, red painted, Case road grader passed through Estacada last Wednesday, enroute to the George road district, where Supervisor Fred Linns has already begun road work.

Judge Campbell of Oregon City will hear the argument in the demurrer in the case of Thos Yocum vs P. F. Standish, et al, April 9th, at 9 A. M.

There will be a special Easter service held Sunday evening at the Church of Jesus Christ in Estacada. Following the service there will be a debate, with Mrs. A. G. Ames and Mrs. Jas. Smith representing the affirmative and Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Coop, the negative.

A party, comprising Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ewing, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Currin, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Dunlop and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Reed motored into Portland last Tuesday, where they witnessed the play, "Peg O' My Heart", at the Heilig Theatre.

Among the list of sailors, who perished in the recent sinking of the U. S. submarine "F-4" near Honolulu, appeared the name of George Death. Many of the older residents of Estacada will recall this young man, as having resided here at one time, as his parents lived in the house on Main and 5th Sts. now occupied by Mrs. Graham.

Mrs Sarah Palmateer of Garfield is visiting among friends and relatives in Silverton.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Gruber of Portland are now located on their Garfield ranch, where they will remain for the summer.

Nearly everyone of the local people, who have visited the San Francisco Fair this season, and have made the trip by boat, have returned with a sickly green complexion and hardly dare cross the Springwater bridge yet.

The Garfield church will hereafter hold Sunday School every other Sunday, at 10:30 A. M., alternating with the Sunday preaching services.

Don't forget the C. I. C. Easter party, April 8th.

A basket social and program will be given at the George school, April 17th, proceeds will go to the school.

Messrs. Surfus and Brown of Elwood are building a new cover on the Upper Clear Creek bridge.

Mrs. C. Coates and son Alvin of Portland are visiting her at the home of her father, Mr. Nelson of Elwood.

H. S. and R. B. Gibson of Eagle Creek made a business trip to Viola last Saturday, where they purchased a fine Jersey bull.

Mt. Zion Sunday School will give a special Easter program, Sunday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, April 4th. Several musical numbers and recitations will be rendered.

At the regular meeting of the George Commercial & Social Club, last Saturday evening, Robt. Miller, Henry Johnson, Mrs. Peter Rath and Mrs. N. Scheel were elected to take charge of the 1915 George community fair. After a discussion of "Proper Corn Planting", the evening was given over to a social time.

Centennial Rebecca Lodge, No. 147 of Estacada, at their last meeting, passed a memorial resolution, as a tribute to the memory of their departed member, Mrs. Minnie K. Armstrong. A copy of the resolution has been placed in the minutes of the organization.

Walter Whitbeck, Estacada's representative in the Evening Telegram's prize subscription contest, is among the leaders in his division and with the added votes which he obtained this week, should be in the lead. While the Progress takes subscriptions to all papers, it requests that you subscribe through Whitbeck at this time and hopes he will be returned among the winners.
