News Notes From All Sections

Dont forget the Easter party at 8 o'clock tonight, April 8th at the C. I. C. rooms. Games to suit all will be played, Pedro, Five Hundred, Bridge and Whist. Prizes will be awarded the winners. Refreshments and a social time are assured for all. Admission 25c with the proceeds for the benefit of the library.

Canby High School finally won the debating honors for Clackamas county, when they last week defeated the Milwaukie teams. The latter team had won from Estacada by default, consequently, were the contenders from this part of the county.

Chris Johnson of George, last week, brought into Estacada a bunch of alfalfa, grown on his farm. This alfalfa was over 12 inches high and presented a sturdy, healthy appearance and was taken from a large patch, which he had planted last year. A few years more should see a well acclimated alfalfa growing here, the same as our acclimated corn.

Posters are already out calling attention to a big dance at Cogswell's hall in Eagle Creek, April 24th. With Geo. Smith as floor manager and with Steib's Harmony Four dispensing the best of music, a good time is assured and everyone is invited.

Geo. Devore, who has a home-stead in the foothills near Elwood, is steadily improving the property by planting more fruit trees, and, with the help of G. Wallace, is pruning and grafting some of the older ones.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Sarver of Estacada, spent last Saturday and Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Ferrel of Barton.

Jas. Pomeroy of Scappoose, commissioner of 1st district of the State Board of Horticulture, spent last Wednesday in Estacada and Springwater.

Mr. Lee Dillon of Portland, is visiting at the home of his brother, W. W. Dillon of Garfield.

Miss Opal McDaniel of Eagle Creek, spent the week end with relatives in Portland.

Born—to Mr. and Mrs. Alex Laing of Garfield, March 31st, a son.

The friends of Mr. Reiter of Barton, are glad to see him home again, after his recent accident in Portland, which necessitated his remaining in a hospital there for a few weeks.

N. F. Revell of Lead, S. D., is spending a week visiting his daughter, Miss Esther Revell at the Garfield home of W. R. Reid.

Mr. Defords of Barton is moving into the Hoffman house near there.

Mrs. Franks and children of Alspaugh, spent Easter visiting relatives in Portland.

Lawrence Alspaugh of Alspaugh returned home last week after visiting both fairs in California.

The Estacada Furniture Co. reports the sale of the new awning which adorns the front of the pool hall and a similar one will soon be installed by Waterbury & Chapman.

Arrangements are being made by the merchants of Estacada to continue the Saturday afternoon moving picture shows for the benefit of the visiting public.

J. W. Dowty of Alspaugh attended the Stock Show in Portland last week, where he sold his fine Short-horn bull "Red Boy".

Edgar Hieple is building a fine wire fence between his place and J. W. Dowty's.

Walter Givens of Estacada is confined to his bed this week with a severe attack of appendicitis. He attended to his regular church work Sunday morning, but was taken very ill shortly after dinner and has been under the doctor's care since. His many friends hope that an operation will not be necessary and that he will soon be as well as ever.
