Mixed Carload Shipped

Buyer C. E. Lucke shipped the eleventh carload of livestock last Monday from the Estacada stock yards. This car comprised a mixture of hogs, cattle and sheep.

The average of a carload of hogs every other week from the local yards, kept up until four weeks ago, when the supply dropped off. Present outlook is for a shipment each week during the coming fall and winter.

Canby and other points, where hog raising has been an industry for several years, are averaging from one to two carloads per week during the whole year and Eastern Clackamas will probably do as well in another year or so.

The successful hog raiser is today running his swine on green feed, especially clover, then fattening and topping them off on a grain ration. A hog fattened on green feed without grain will not bring top price nor is there much demand for such meat.

The demand for livestock, as for other commodities is for the A. No. 1 product.

Advise the Progress office at any time that you have stock for sale, for as soon as forty or fifty head are ready, another carload will be shipped.
