

Buy Fruit Jars Now

We bought before the last two market advances and are going to give you the benefit, but our supply is somewhat limited.

Send in your orders now and we will reserve what you want

Mason Jars with Zinc Covers

Pints per dozen - - - 50c
 Quarts per dozen - - - 55c
 Half-gallon per dozen - 85c
 Extra caps for the above jars, per dozen 15c
 These are the ordinary Mason Jars and require rubbers.

Economy Jars with patent lids

Pints per dozen - - - 80c
 Quarts per dozen - - - 95c
 Half-gallon per dozen - $1.35
 Extra Caps for the above jars, per dozen 20c

Kerr Mason Self Sealing Jars

No rubbers required
 Pints per dozen - - - 55c
 Quarts per dozen - - - 65c
 Half-gallon per dozen - 95c
 Extra Caps for the above will fit any Mason jars per dozen - 25c

Attention Housewives

We have now in the hands of the Progress, a printing order for 80,000 fruit jar and jelly labels. While they last we will give free with every order for Fruit Jars or Groceries enough of these labels to label all your fruit for this year.

You need our labels,
 we need your business

Our Slogan.-

"A Satisfied Customer is Our Best Advertisement"

TRACY & GIVENS

Estacada, - Oregon.

News Notes From All Sections

F. C. Puckett and family, formerly of Canton, S. D., last week moved onto the Leon Jones' place in Garfield. Jones some time ago disposed of the property and is residing in Idaho.

Not to be outdone by Trapper Morton of Estacada, Harry Bitner of Elwood, who is in charge of the flood-dam on Clear Creek, last Thursday night caught a skunk under his bed, in a trap set for chipmunks.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bard of Springwater and his mother, Mrs. M. J. Bard, made an auto trip to Woodburn, on the 15th, to visit relatives, returning a couple of days later. They report muddy roads, but the "little Ford rambled right along".

S. L. Fisher and family of Springwater have moved to Pacific City, Oregon, where he is in charge of a dairy ranch.

I. M. Parks and son Bert of Elwood left this week for a trip by team through southeastern Oregon, where they will seek a permanent location.

Mrs. H. V. Adix of Estacada entertained a few friends last Saturday evening, in honor of her guests, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Harkins of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Trowbridge of Estacada entertained a few Garfield friends at dinner last Sunday at the Hotel Estacada, in honor of Miss Esther Revell, who is leaving this week for California.

Everyone is invited to attend the dance and basket-social at the Barton hall, for the benefit of the Barton base-ball team, next Saturday evening.

Dr. E. Smith, the veterinary surgeon of Gresham, has been an Estacada visitor several times in the past few weeks, attending to a number of sick horses nearby.

Miss Esther Revell, who has been in charge of the Tracy school for the past season, left Monday for California, where she will spend the summer. Miss Revell will be in charge of the Damascus school, the coming season. The Tracy school closed last Friday, with suitable exercises, an exhibition of the pupils' work and a picnic.

Walter Givens of Estacada reports the receipt of a telegram last Monday, advising that Mrs. Givens and children were leaving Manhattan, Kan. the next day, and expected to arrive home the 27th. Mrs. Givens was called east several months ago, owing to the sudden death of her mother, and since then has been visiting among relatives and friends.

May Bargains

Cascade Roofing Paper $1.25 per 100 sq. ft.
 Cross Panel Doors 1.25 each
 Assortment of Windows Bargain Prices
 New Shipment of Feed Just Received This Week.

Estacada Lumber & Produce Co.

The interior of the Viola church has been repainted, the work being in charge of Thomas Jubb.

Rev. A.J. Montgomery will occupy the pulpit at the Eagle Creek church next Sunday evening at 7.45 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Beers and Mrs. Gus Donley of Gresham spent Sunday at the John Githen's home in Alspaugh.

Manager H. G. Trowbridge of the East Clackamas Supply Co. spent several days of last week in Portland, buying the stock for the new store.

The Viola school will close Friday, the 23th., with a program and dinner. The best wishes of the pupils and parents are extended to the teacher, Miss Myrtle Woodle of Estacada and they hope for her return another season.

Mrs. J. W. Dowty of Alspaugh entertained six guests at a delightful luncheon last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Glover of Eagle Creek were delegates to the State Grange which convened recently at Tillamook.

Mrs. Helen Massey of Portland is spending a couple of weeks in Estacada, as the guest of her sister, Mrs. Geo. Dale.

Owing to the inclement weather, the attendance at the annual Eagle Creek picnic was not up to the average of former years, but a goodly crowd was present nevertheless. State Grange Master C. E. Spence gave a short talk and the music by the Garfield band was enjoyed.

A special meeting of the elders of the Springwater church was held Monday at the home of Wm. Bard. Subjects dealing with the betterment of the church and community were discussed. Elders, Wm. Bard, J. F. Moger, J. C. Peterson and pastor, C. F. Aue were present.

Born—May 23rd to Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Marshal of Garfield, a son.

Stanford Cox of Estacada, who is working in the mountains above Dodge, was taken ill last week and it was necessary for Dr. Adix to make a trip up there, but inasmuch as the doctor combined rhododendron picking with business, all concerned are feeling better.

Bob Mattoon of Estacada met with an accident last Monday while working with the steam roller, which necessitated a couple of stitches in a gash on his head.

Mrs. Mary McWillis Boyd and baby of Portland are spending a couple of weeks in Estacada, visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McWillis.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Sparks, entertained a few friends last Monday evening, at a duplicate whist party, followed by a delicious supper.

S. J. Eddy and wife of Portland were the week end guests of K. B. Gibson and wife of Eagle Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Woodle of Eagle Creek spent last Sunday at Troutdale, visiting at the home of Malcolm Woodle and wife.

A number of Viola people attended the Oregon City Booster Day celebration last Saturday.

Mrs. Adolph Wiederhold of Bissell attended the graduation of her daughter Adelphine, from St. Joseph's Hospital training school at Vancouver, this week.

Mrs. M. L. Sevier of Viola is still obliged to use crutches, but hopes to discard them by July.

Miss Lulu Sprouse, teacher of the Elwood school, left this week for her home in California.

The sermon at the Christian church next Sunday morning, at 11 o'clock, will be the City of God; in the evening, at 7:45, the sermon will be The Old Time Religion. A chart will be used. Arrangements are being made to use the stereopticon in the evening services.

Martin Anderson of Portland spent the week-end at the P. Nelson home in Elwood, which place was formerly owned by Mr. Anderson.

Stanley Granatzki of Elwood is building an addition to his house, to be used as a kitchen.

Frank Ewing of the Upper Dam, engineer in charge of the P. R. L. & P. Co.'s interests on the Upper Clackamas, is making a trip into the mountains of Washington, beyond Lewis Sulphur Springs, in the interests of the company's hydraulic department.