

HERE'S the ready chew! You can get genuine comfort and tobacco satisfaction without having to grind all the time! "Right-Cut" is the Real Tobacco Chew that tobacco chewers are telling one another about. Pure, rich, sappy tobacco — seasoned and sweetened just enough. The taste comes along steady—and it lasts you longer than the old kind. If you like real tobacco by all means buy a pouch.

Take a very small chew—less than one-quarter the old size. It will be more satisfying than a mouthful of ordinary tobacco. Just nibble on it until you find the strength chew that suits you. Tuck it away. Then let it rest. See how easily and evenly the real tobacco taste comes, how it satisfies without grinding, how much less you have to spit, how few chews you take to be tobacco satisfied. That's why it is The Real Tobacco Chew. That's why it costs less in the end.

It is a ready chew, cut fine and short shred so that you won't have to grind on it with your teeth. Grinding on ordinary candied tobacco makes you spit too much.

The taste of pure, rich tobacco does not need to be covered up with molasses and florice. Notice how the salt brings out the rich tobacco taste in "Right-Cut." One small chew takes the place of two big chews of the old kind.

GARFIELD MEN FREED Justice Court Conviction Reversed

After five hours deliberation, a jury in the circuit court at Oregon City, last Friday returned a verdict of not guilty in the case of N. M. Tracy and son Earl, of Garfield, on a charge of assaulting Frank Rhodes, a neighbor.

The defendants were charged with assault, following a discussion of the rights of the defendants to use the Rhodes' road, leading to the Eagle Creek ford. Attorneys Bartlett of Estacada and Brownell of Oregon City represented the defendants, while District Attorney Hedges appeared for the state.

A large number of persons from Estacada were in Oregon City to hear the case. The witnesses were: for the state, Frank Rhodes, Susan Rhodes, A. M. Kirchem and W. A. Rhodes, and for the defendant, Norman M. Tracy, Earl Tracy, William Dale, J. F. Lovelace, Albert Havens, Frank Lingelbach, Walter P. Strunk, Conrad Krigbaum and B. F. Ford. The jury was composed of John G. Moehnke, James Fegles, Thomas E. Gault, G. Hanson, Fred Greger, Mark Seely, S. B. Berg, W. A. Wood, C. E. Meldrum, W. F. Stanton, A. W. Cook and W. C. Green. Earl Tracy was graduated from the Estacada high school this year.

THE STOCKMAN.

Thousands of colts are harboring worms and so becoming thin and rough in coat and their owners do not know what is wrong. The worms themselves may be seen if looked for.

There seems to be a prejudice against sheep in many neighborhoods, and yet there is profit in them when they are given the right kind of attention.

Gentle sows can be so handled that they will take kindly to any management.

It pays to keep culling the sheep, always aiming at greater perfection.

When we consider the thousands and thousands of horses that are going out to the war zone every farmer should realize the opportunity in sight to raise some good horses at a profit.

Save the breeding pigs from the sows that have large litters.

IMPORTANT TO ALL

MOTOR VEHICLE OWNERS

Chapter 350, Laws 1915, in effect May 22, 1915, provides that number plates cannot be transferred from one motor vehicle to another motor vehicle.

The number plates assigned by the Secretary of State to a motor vehicle remain with such motor vehicle during the year for which it is registered. It is the motor vehicle that is registered, not the owner.

Upon sale of a motor vehicle the purchaser must notify the Secretary of State. He will furnish a transfer blank which must be signed by the purchaser and returned for filing together with the statutory fee of $1.00. No sale or transfer is valid unless the required transfer notice is given by the purchaser and the fee paid by him.

The foregoing requirements in effect May 22, 1915.

Respectfully,

BEN W. OLCOTT,
Secretary of State.
