Livestock Shipment Postponed

Owing to a continued shortage of hogs and cattle, Buyer C. E. Lucke will be unable to make a shipment next Monday.

While a number of growers had notified the local agent of stock which they had for sale, not enough stock was listed to warrant ordering a car for next week.

Every effort will be made to ship from the Estacada stock yards, Monday, June 14th.

While a postponement of shipping date is a disappointment to the growers having stock on hand, the condition cannot be helped until such time as the supply will warrant regular buying and shipping.

Growers having stock are requested to notify the local agent, R. M. Standish of Estacada.

Widely Known Methodist Dead

Word was received last Monday of the death of Dr. Harry Kimball at Pasadena, California.

Many people in this section and especially in Garfield knew Dr. Kimball, as he had frequently visited at the home of his nephew, S. D. Dunlop.

Dr. Kimball was one of the leading Methodists of the state, the founder and until recently the president of Kimball College at Salem and a greatly beloved old man.

Ask For One

W. R. Reid & Sons of Garfield, agents for the Samson Sieve Grip Tractor, are this week in receipt of the new catalog, describing that labor saving machine.

This catalog is a work of art from a printer's standpoint, containing many beautiful half tone engravings, showing the tractor working under all conditions. Copies of this booklet may be had on application.

At present Harry Reid is explaining the merits of the tractor to a number of Molalla ranchers who have asked for information.

Miss Jessie J. Lynch, who for the past three years has resided at the home of her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Whitcomb of Garfield, has gone to California. She expects to later visit relatives in the east, but intends to return to the coast for the winter.

Country Store Contemplated

A couple of the genial grocery salesmen, who visit Estacada and nearby merchants each month, are sponsors for the report that a company is being organized to build and operate a country store, to be located in the triangular shaped piece, at the top of the Springwater hill.

While this report may not be correct, the merchants of Estacada and Springwater would not welcome such a competitor. If a store should be located at the place mentioned, it is not likely that it would prove a paying location nowadays, although there was a time when conditions would have been otherwise.

With the present and future good roads leading into Estacada, with the completion of the graveling of the Springwater hill road and the opening up of the cut-off road from the Viola direction, few farmers would be contented to trade at a store that near to the city of Estacada proper, and many of them would not pass that way.

If the backers of this project want to invest money locally, the Estacada Business Men's Development League will gladly help them to locate and in some businesses needed here.

Epidemic Feared

Coyd Looney of Currinsville this week lost a valuable two year old Belgian colt, following a two weeks sickness from influenza. Everything possible was done for the animal but the disease appeared to be in a malignant form.

A couple of years ago an epidemic of this sort was current in this community and many valuable colts and horses succumbed. If there is danger of another epidemic, maybe some precautionary measures can be taken at this time.

Will Play at Chautauqua

The Barton base ball team, representing the eastern part of the county and comprising players from Barton, Eagle Creek and Estacada, has been entered in the coming Chautauqua series to be played at Gladstone.

The Barton boys will play one of the fast Portland teams next Sunday.

Last Sunday's game against the Maccabees resulted in a defeat for the locals, with a score of 3 to 2.
