All base-ball players, near players and aspirants for diamond honors are requested to dig up their old uniforms, gloves, bats and other appurtenances and be present next Sunday afternoon at the Estacada Ball Park, where a practice game will be held, to determine the likely candidates for the new base ball team. A game has already been scheduled for the following Sunday, June 13th.

If you have any trading stamps on hand, call on W. D. Henthorn of the Estacada Furniture Co.

The W. A. Jones' feed, livery and sale stables of Estacada are being moved into a new building, adjoining the former quarters, and the owner will continue the business as formerly.

Miss. Flora Schultz and brothers Jerome and Art of Garfield entertained a barn full of friends at a rip-snorting, old fashioned, jolly barn dance, last Saturday evening. Reports of the good time are still being talked over by the fortunate guests.
