

FREE

For the Asking

80,000 Fruit Labels

Buy Fruit Jars Now

We bought before the last two market advances and are going to give you the benefit, but our supply is somewhat limited.

Send in your orders now and we will reserve what you want

Mason Jars with Zinc Covers

Pints per dozen	-	50c
Quarts per dozen	-	55c
Half-gallon per dozen	-	85c

Extra caps for the above jars, per dozen 15c
These are the ordinary Mason Jars and require rubbers.

Economy Jars with patent lids

Pints per dozen	-	80c
Quarts per dozen	-	95c
Half-gallon per dozen	-	$1.25

Extra Caps for the above jars, per dozen 20c

Kerr Mason Self Sealing Jars

No rubbers required

Pints per dozen	-	55c
Quarts per dozen	-	65c
Half-gallon per dozen	-	95c

Extra Caps for the above will fit any Mason jars per dozen - 25c

Our Slogan.-

"A Satisfied Customer is Our Best Advertisement"

TRACY & GIVENS

Estacada, - Oregon.

News Notes From All Sections

Edgar Heiple of Alspaugh has just completed the building of wire fence completely around his farm.

F. E. Beckwith the Estacada jeweler, owing to the growth of his business, has rented the store adjoining his present quarters. The new store will be well equipped with show and wall cases and will be open all of next week, beginning June 14th.

J. W. Dowty of Alspaugh, with the help of Dave Hoffmeister, dipped his herd of goats last Monday.

Miss Rachael Reed of Estacada has been spending a few days visiting at the H. M. James home in Silverton.

Mr. and Mrs. Place and child of Portland are spending a couple of weeks with Mrs. Harry Franks of Alspaugh.

Miss Bertha Swigert of Iola, Kansas spent a few days last week at the home of her cousin, Mrs. S. D. Dunlop of Garfield.

Miss Maud Sturgeon and mother of Estacada, returned last week after a ten days visit at Tillamook.

O. O. Bland and wife of Estacada left last Saturday for the east, and will visit Colorado and Kansas points. Geo. Copenhagen of Copenhagen Bros., and family have rented the Bland home for the summer.

Wm. Bard, with the assistance of Messrs. Lovelace, Foster, Herring and Kilbride of Springwater, has greatly improved the old Springwater road. Supervisor Millard loaned them the grader and their volunteer work has made a good showing.

A dance will be held at the Dodge Hall next Saturday evening June 12th, and everyone is invited.

A number of the friends of Miss Millie Millard of Springwater, last Saturday evening honored her with a delightful surprise party.

Miss Kate Granatzki of Elwood is spending the summer with her sister, Mrs. Julia Lund of Lents.

The father of A. D. McMillan of Eagle Creek is his guest this week.

In order to eliminate the up-hill haul and to give better service to that part of the country. Tracy & Givens of Estacada have established a branch store and warehouse in Viola in charge of Frank Cummin. The hauling from Estacada to the branch store is in charge of A. C. White of Viola.

Jno. McVeigh, a Portland horse buyer was in the Eagle Creek district last Friday.

Sand and Gravel $2.50 per Cubic Yard

Cascade Roofing Paper	$1.25 per 100 sq. ft.
Cross Panel Doors	1.25 each
Assortment of Windows	Bargain Prices
New Shipment of Feed	Just Received.

Agency for FANTON SHINGLES
Estacada Lumber & Produce Co.

Are You In The Market For A SEPARATOR?

In fairness to yourself, investigate the merits of the Simplex Separator before you buy.

H. F. Gibson, Agent. Barton, Oregon.

Word has been received at Elwood that G. E. Dibble, who was taken to Salem for treatment, is seriously ill and that little hope is held out for his recovery. His son Floyd of Walton, Ore. spent a few days last week visiting brothers and sisters in Elwood.

Mgr. Tom Eaden of the Viola store has greatly improved the appearance of the interior of his place of business by the application of a fresh coat of white paint.

Walter Douglass and daughters, Mildred and Florice, Mrs. Roy Douglass, Mrs. Flora Benson and children and Mrs. R. B. Gibson of Eagle Creek, attended the Logan Grange picnic last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Moger have adopted a Bible quiz class at the Springwater Sunday School, which is meeting with great success.

Mrs. Roy Douglass of Eagle Creek spent a few days visiting friends and relatives in Oregon City last week.

Many samples of perfect fruit have been shown at the Progress office lately, including gooseberries grown by W. W. Boner, measuring 3 1/2 inches in circumference, and raspberries from the John Marchbank place that were as big as pigeon eggs.

Jas. Taylor of Eagle Creek recently returned from a trip to Dufur, Ore.

Earl Shibley of Springwater has finished clearing the land adjoining his house and now has it under garden.

Last Sunday being Pioneer Night at the Estacada Epworth League, a very interesting meeting was held with a good attendance. The young people are especially invited to attend these league meetings.

Mrs. Maggie Washburn of Yakima, Wash., formerly Miss Maggie Marchbank of Springwater, was a visitor at the Bard home last week.

E. W. Bartlett and wife left this week for a short trip in Eastern Oregon, where Mr. Bartlett was called on business matters.

Wm. Delap of Portland was an Estacada business visitor last week.

P. F. Standish of Garfield returned last Tuesday from a thirty days visit in San Francisco and other California points. While there he not only enjoyed the Panama Pacific Exposition, but marketed several tons of Garfield gooseberries at top prices.

Lorenzo Tenny of Springwater is preparing to install a silo and Earl Shibley will be in charge of its construction.

Mrs. Maud Graham of Estacada this week purchased a Ford automobile through the local agent J. W. Reed. Mrs. Graham and daughter are contemplating a trip to San Francisco this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Farmer and Miss E. Fitzgerald of Portland spent the week-end at the home of H. Githens in Currinsville.

Mrs. Jennie Dalquist of Sycamore and her two daughters are visiting her mother, Mrs. J. M. Hayden of Springwater.

Roy Alspaugh of Alspaugh is the owner of a new Dodge automobile.

Dr. Bertha L. Devore of Drain, Oregon is visiting this week at the home of her brother, C. W. Devore of Estacada.

At the Family Theatre next Saturday will be shown the following intensely interesting pictures:- 6th episode of the Exploits of Elaine, entitled the Vampire; The Pathe News; The Police Dog; Animated Cartoon; and the Ford Special. Admission free to all Estacada visitors at the afternoon performances.

Next regular meeting of the Estacada Business Men's Development League, next Monday evening, June 14th. All parties, who attended last meeting are requested to be present.

Miss Martha Standish of Grand Rapids, Mich., after a week's visit at the home of her nephew R. M. Standish of Estacada, left for Portland where she will visit for a few weeks prior to her return home via San Francisco.

C. I. C. Dance

There will be a dance Friday evening, June 18th at the Odd Fellows Hall in Estacada, given under the auspices of the Civic Improvement Club. Everyone is invited to be present. Tickets 75c per couple.