News Notes From All Sections

About forty couples enjoyed the C. I. C. dance, held at the pavilion last Friday night. As usual the C. I. C. ladies had spared no pains to show the dancers a good time, for the floor was in extra good shape, the music by Miss Ednah Deming and Harry Reid was excellent and snappy, and the refreshments hit the right spot at the right time.

Mrs. Willis Yonce of Estacada, entertained a number of friends last Saturday evening at a midnight supper, following the dance.

Horace Davis of Aberdeen, Wash., is visiting with his parents in Garfield and with relatives in this vicinity.

Supervisor Frank Millard of Springwater reports that the work on the Springwater hill is going along merrily. In the past few weeks they have rocked and placed three courses of gravel on over 700 feet of highway and expect to finish the remaining 3800 ft. in another sixty days. At present the work is awaiting the steam roller.

It is a pleasure to be alive this fine weather and enjoy an auto ride over the miles of graveled roads leading into Estacada. Auto riding in this part of the county is not confined to the owners of the machines only, for they all believe in filling the seats to capacity with friends, and it is good to be and have a friend.

The new house of Harold Wooster near the school house in Estacada is fast nearing the roof stage and when finished, promises to be one of the the prettiest homes in the city.

Dr. H. V. Adix of Estacada last Monday drove into Estacada from Portland in a new Dodge automobile. This new car will take the place of the doctor's former machine, except during inclement weather, when the reliable Ford will expedite the doctor's calls, and take the brunt of the hard traveling.

Beginning with this issue, the Progress Supplement contains valuable reading matter on both sides of the sheet. A little more for your $1.

Iver Erickson of Portland is spending a few days at the home of his parents in Currinsville.

Mort Congdon is visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Y. Congdon of Currinsville. Mort has been, for some time past, substitute railway mail clerk, with headquarters at Bend, but at present is not employed.
