Chautauqua

It is surprising the amount of good things one can see and hear at the Willamette Valley Chautauqua for $$ 2.50$, the price of a season ticket, which gives you access to the grounds for the entire season of thirteen daysTuesday, July 6th to Sunday July 18th, inclusive. Camping privileges cost $$ 1$ and a tent may be rented for $$ 2$. If purchased in books of ten tickets the price is $$ 2$ each.
The program for 1915 is one of the best yet offered. Among the lecturers are Arthur A. Franzke, Mrs. A. C. Zehner, Senator E. J. Burkett, of Nebraska; Rev. Father Me Corry, Dr. R. A. Nichols, Newell Dwight Hillis, Nels Darling, Col. W. H. Miller, Col. Bain, Fred Eugene Baker, and Congressman Willis C. Hawand ley.
Next in importance is the musical talent headed by Ciricillo's Royal Italian Band; The Swiss Alphine Yodlers, Royal Hungarian Orchestra, Schumann Quintet, Saxony Opera Singers, Charlotte Bergh the Norwegian Nightengale, Adelphian Quartet, Buckner's Jubilee Singers and the Gullatto Trio.

Other talent includes Marion Ballou Fisk, Cartoonist-lecturer; Marietta LaDell, Celebrated entertainer; Della Crowder Miller, tertainer; Della Crowder Miler, Dramatic interpreter; Evelyn Dramatic interpreter; Evelyn Bargelt, reader and sketch artist; The Magical Floyds, Kings of melody, mirth and mystification. melody, mirth and mystification.
To fill in interims for each member of the family, there's the Summer School, Daily Forum, Baseball every afternoon, Civic Parliament, Kindergarten Work, special music by Chautauqua Chorus under direction of Prof. J. H. Cowan and other features too numerous to mention.

Gla 'stone Park is an ideal camping spot; plenty of shade and excellent water. Cars run to the park gates
For an outing that is very satisfactory and pleasing, at a very low cost, the Willamette Valley Chautauqua is the place to go.

Enjoys Auto Ride

A. M. Shibley of Springwater, 82 years old, who owing to paralysis has been confined to his home for the past three years, this week made a call on Mr. and Mrs. John Stormer of Estacada, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

The trip was made in the new Studebaker auto of his son, J. A, Shibley, and it is hoped that the old gentleman will be able to enjoy more such trips.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Dunlop of Garfield entertained a few friends last Wednesday evening. in honof their third wedding anniversary.
E. W. Bartlett of Estacada is making a short business trip to Eugene this week.

A niece from Portland of Mrs, Frank Gibb of Viola is spending the summer at her home.
