

Demonstration and Sale
Saturday, July 10th
Snow Flake Sodas
and the other famous Cakes and Crackers
of the SWASTIKA brand

Special demonstration of this greatest home product to introduce many new specialties.

Be sure to visit the following stores and learn more about these pure food products baked in Oregon's largest, most sanitary bake shops. When in Portland, be sure to visit the Pacific Coast Biscuit Company and see for yourself under what ideal conditions these wholesome cakes and crackers are baked.

Recommended and For Sale by

Waterbury & Chapman
 Park & Closner

G. H. Lichthorn
 Cazadero Merc. Co.

Tracy & Givins
 Cazadero Merc. Co.

Pacific Coast Biscuit Company
PORTLAND, . . . OREGON

Choice Meat and Poultry

only are handled at this market. We do not keep the tough, flavorless, inferior grades which are neither satisfactory nor economical. A little of our prime meat is much better than a lot of poorer quality. The test lies in the taste. Order your Sunday dinner meat here.

Cash Paid For Eggs
 Fish Fridays

Palace Meat Market
 Fred Jorg, Proprietor

Phone Main 83. Broadway
 Estacada, Oregon

Lumber
Klaetsch Mills

First class lumber of all kinds, promptly delivered from big stock on hand. Dimension material a specialty. Phone or call at mill, at Dodge. O. C. Klaetsch, Owner.

News Notes From All Sections

M. E. Hendrick of McMinnville, owner of the building now occupied by the East Clackamas Supply Co., and Wm. Dale stores, was an Estacada visitor last week.

Earl Jones of Estacada and the Kiggins boys of Springwater returned last week from an eight-day fishing trip up the Clackamas. They report having had the best of luck, especially above the Cary Hot Springs, near the old hatchery. They made the return trip on the south side of the river, via Dodge.

Mr. and Mrs. Burgess F. Ford and family shipped the last of their household goods to Salem, Oregon, where their future home will be.

Miss Gertrude Morrow is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Morrow of Estacada.

The Misses Mable and Edith Haney of Saint Paul, enroute to their home from San Francisco, spent a few days in South Estacada last week, as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Howe.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Carson and son of Portland are visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. C. F. Frazier of Estacada. Mrs. Carson and son will remain for the summer, while Mr. Carson makes an eastern business trip.

Tom Beebe of Garfield met with a serious accident while in the mountains last week salting cattle. Beebe's horse stumbled, knocking him down and badly trampling his leg and ankle, necessitating medical attention.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Holder of Estacada have completed moving from their former home on the Reagan hill to their newly purchased property, formerly the Antrim place.

Mrs. Edith Swackhamer, Miss Metha Nichols and Mr. Jas. Odell of Portland motored out to Estacada last Friday evening and remained over the 6th, as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Irwin D. Wright.

Little Charles Dubois, the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Dubois of Estacada last week received a tumble which resulted in a badly cut head, necessitating the services of a physician, but the youngster was soon able to be about as usual.

Livestock buyer C. E. Lucke of Canby reports having paid out over $7,000. last week to the raisers of hogs in the Canby and Molalla sections, with thirty-five hours consumed in one stretch in the loading and shipping of the stock.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Underwood of Estacada returned last week from an extended auto trip through Washington and Oregon.

The road crew of the George district under the direction of supervisor Lins has finished this summer's work and until after harvest no further road building will be done. The George bridge road has been rocked and gravelled up to the line of the neighboring Garfield district, which district hopes to be able to carry on the graveling to the main road about a quarter of a mile west.

Hurley Fellows of Highland, formerly of the Estacada high school was an Estacada visitor last week.

John Brooks of the Upper Dam forces met with an accident last week while unloading heavy boxes, which resulted in the tearing of the ligaments of his ribs.

Rev. Frank E. Jones of Eugene, the pastor of the Estacada Christian Church was unable to return to his home following last Sunday's services, owing to a severe attack of sciatic rheumatism. While in Estacada he remained at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Givens and Mr. and Mrs. Milt Marshall.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Cook and daughters of Portland visited the Estacada celebration last Monday. Mr. Cook returned to Portland, but Mrs. Cook and daughters, Winifred and Helena, are spending a few days at the home of P. F. Standish in Garfield.