Slops Netted $10.50

Roy Myers of Eagle Creek believes that every housekeeper, during these times of "high cost of living" should keep a pet pig, not necessarily in the parlor, but near the kitchen door.

Roy claims he took one six weeks old runt pig, four and a half months ago, raised it entirely on slops from the kitchen, plus $2. worth of stale bread and this week butchered and sold the animal for $15. The runt was worth $2.50 when he got it, plus $2. for bread, leaving a profit of $10.50.

Roy says 100 pigs would net a man $1050. and a thousand pigs (but Roy had to get off at Eagle Creek station about then.)

Business Men Attention

There will be a meeting of the Estacada Business Men's Development League at the Estacada State Bank, next Tuesday evening, August 10th. at 8 o'clock sharp. All merchants and members are urged to be present, as several important matters are to be discussed and radical changes considered.

Elmer Olson of McMinnville is visiting at the home his uncle, J. Randolph of Viola.

A. O. Hollingsworth of Gladstone is helping his brother-in-law, Ray Miller of Viola, with his crops.

The Old Swimmin' Ole

During the past warm spell, several of the younger folks from Estacada, including a number of the belles, debutantes and society buds have been frolicing, disporting themselves and practicing swimming in the Clackamas River near Cazadero bridge.

These water nymphs, mermaids and a few ordinary boys, not content to frisk about during the warm hours of the day, have even camped over night on the adjoining riparian property, so as to begin the next day's dip at daybreak. But after the shades of night descended with the mosquitoes feasting on their sunburned, dimpled shoulders, several of the neophytes beat it for home, mother and a comfortable bed.

A social dance was given at the George Club House last Saturday evening, with music furnished by the George quartette.

L. H. Burd of Estacada is handling the plastering and building a fire place in the new home of W. F. Cary on Terrace Addition.

M. Somer, wife and son of Chanute, Kan. spent a couple of days at the home of his brother, J. A. Somer of Estacada Heights.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hicinbotham and daughters of Viola are taking a two weeks outing at Tillamook.

Mrs. John Wourms and children of Portland, who have been visiting her brother in George, have returned to their home.

Profit Four Pigs

Last year the Portland Union Stock Yards offered to furnish any boy or girl in Oregon, a bred registered sow; the security to consist of a note guaranteed by the parents or guardian of the boy or girl and payable after the pigs had matured.

Lloyd Saling of Currinsville was one of the enterprising boys who availed himself of this opportunity and today is the proud owner of the mother sow and eight little pigs. These pigs are thoroughbred Duroc - Jerseys and part of them will soon be for sale, the proceeds of which will pay off his original obligation on the sow, leaving him a profit of the sow and about three fine pigs.

1926 Fords to Cost Nothing

At the present rate of reducing the price on Ford autos, even an editor may own a 1926 model with the cash bonus of $35.

J. W. Reed, the local agent, announces that August 1st a reduction of $50. was made on the latest models, besides a freight reduction of about $20.

Many prospective buyers, who have been holding off their purchasing awaiting this announcement, will soon be making the highways unsafe for stray dogs.

O. O. James and family of Faraday are spending a few weeks during his vacation, at the seashore.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Curry of Portland were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Scheel of Bissell for a couple of days last week.

$2. a day. $10. a week
