Bids Wanted

The Estacada School Board wants bids for certain repairs to the school house, as per plans and specifications. All bids to be accompanied by a certified check for 10% of the bid and to be in by August 6th. See Fred Jorg, Chairman.

Miss Hazel Freeman of Elwood is home for a few weeks vacation.

Mrs. S. E. Wooster of Estacada, who has been ill with malarial fever for the past two weeks, is slowly recovering and expects to be about soon.

Harold Rowlee of Elwood, who has been working away from home for some months, has returned for an indefinite stay.

The Clackamas River Trail looks like an Estacada business street these days, as there are about forty of the local men working nearby, and with the number of local campers; the traveller meets many familiar faces. One sheep-herder near Clackamas Lake said he was going to move on to more isolated parts, for the mountains were getting too darned civilized, as he had seen three women near his camp within sixty days.
