News Notes From All Sections

In the absence of the driver, three horses attached to a binder belonging to John Stormer of Springwater, started on a runaway through the fields last Friday but were finally stopped after considerable risk by Barney Schoenberg. No harm was done to the horses but the tongue of the binder gave Blacksmith Barr of Estacada a few hours rush work.

Miss Oakley and Miss Mary Oakley of Seattle are visiting at the home of their sister, Mrs. J. W. Reed of Estacada.

Notices have already been received at this office of about fifty head of livestock which will be ready for the next shipment from the Estacada stock yards. Buyer Lucke should be in this vicinity within a few days, but at present cannot set the exact date for next shipment. Parties having stock for sale, advise the Progress office.

The Misses Jessie and Alice Armstrong of Portland who have recently returned from taking a summer course at the State Normal School, are now spending a few weeks at the Armstrong country home in Lower Garfield. Miss Jessie Armstrong is a June graduate of the Oregon Normal while Miss Alice took a summer course preparatory to her teaching in the Tracy School the coming school year.

Mrs. Smith of Portland, is visiting at the home of her brother, T. Jackson of Viola.

H. F. Gibson of Barton, was visiting at his father's home on Sunday and Monday.

J. C. Duus of Garfield a week or so ago purchased the slightly used Ford car from the Clackamas Garage and his sons have since been every day visitors in town.

The Wm. Dale Co. of Estacada is giving away a handy souvenir, consisting of a combination, pencil, pen and eraser. If the school was in session now, the store couldn't stand the rush for these gifts.

Ted Saling, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Saling of Currinsville, being jealous of the attention bestowed upon his father during the recovery from his late accident, joined the ranks of the temporarily incapacitated, by being thrown from the family's "Dobbin" and receiving a break in the elbow bone.

Mrs. G. W. Smith and daughter Elsie, of Coffeyville, Kansas are visiting at the home of their son and brother, O. E. Smith of Estacada. They are leaving soon for home, by way of San Francisco and Los Angeles.

Lodges, Clubs, Granges or other Organizations

Does your club room need a new instrument? Do you want a piano, player piano, organ or phonograph? We will make you a liberal allowance on your present instrument and will so arrange the balance of your payments, that the purchase of the new instrument will not prove an embarrassment to you.
