

Our Jewelry Stock

Is New and Complete

Don't fail to inspect my Stock of
Watches, Clocks, Silverware and Jewelry

Repairing a Specialty

I will be in Estacada—

Aug. 16th to 22nd.

When not here, leave work at Marchbank's.

F. E. Beckwith,

The Jeweler

Adjoining Marchbank's

Beef of Quality

is the only kind kept at this market. We plan every roast, every steak sold to make friends for us. So we sell only the choicest and primest and at prices which add nothing to the cost of living by trading here.

Cash Paid For Eggs

Palace Meat Market

Fred Jorg, Proprietor

Phone Main 83.

Broadway

Estacada, Oregon

Riley's Toffies

The English Made Candy

Something Entirely New

Full fresh line of

Candies, Cigars and

Smokers Articles

Kodak Supplies - Films and Developers

Fishing Tackle

Ed Boner

Estacada

Lumber

Klaetsch Mills

First class lumber of all kinds, promptly delivered from big stock on hand.

Dimension material a specialty.

Phone or call at mill, at Dodge.

O. C. Klaetsch, Owner.

News Notes From All Sections

Owing to the serious illness of her father, Mrs. H. G. Trowbridge of Estacada is leaving this week for the family home in Arlington, Minn.

Walt Bartholomew of Portland spent a few days in Estacada and Currinsville last week, visiting his brother Fred, and sisters, Mrs. E. E. and C. C. Saling.

Miss Nouna Vallen of Elwood visited a few days at the home of Mrs. Audrey Linn of Currinsville.

Warren Barr and Bob Morton of Estacada, who have been in the forestry work along the upper Clackamas, have returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Kane of Portland, who have been spending the summer on their Elwood homestead, have returned home.

Emile Bittner, Frank Rotter, Mrs. Effie Bittner and Miss Lena Miller of Oregon City were guests at the Chris Bittner home in Elwood, last Sunday.

Geo. Eilers of Portland spent last Sunday at the Scheel home in Bissell and returning was accompanied by Mrs. Eilers and children, who have been spending a few weeks vacation at her parents' home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ferguson and Mrs. W. K. Haviland of Estacada visited at the Wiederhold home in Bissell last Sunday.

Mrs. Elenora Ginther, a former teacher in the Estacada Schools, was married July 24th last to Dr. Willard G. Benawa of Craig, Alaska. Word was received by Mrs. L. M. Yocum of Estacada.

A. J. Mills of Estacada left last Friday morning for work in the Forestry Service above the Oak Grove, under Forester Hugh Mendenhall.

Mrs. Ralph Cummings of Mosier, Or. spent last Sunday at the home of her brother, B. H. Finch of Estacada.

Wm Hicinbotham and family of Viola returned Monday from Netard's, near Tillamook, after spending a pleasant two weeks vacation.

A dinner party was given at the P. M. Wagner home in Estacada last Thursday evening, celebrating the 38th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Wagner and the first anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wooster.

Miss Elverda Treese, of Hollidaysburg, Pa., is spending a few days in this vicinity, visiting at the homes of E. S. Womer, Floyd Spurlin and other friends. Miss Treese is making an extensive western trip, having visited California and other points.

Mrs. Selma Olson of McMinnville is visiting with her sister, Mrs. J. Randolph of Viola.

Owing to the fact that most of the farmers in and near Sandy are too busy with road building, the regular Sandy Fair will not be held this year.

Mrs. Maud Graham and daughter, Erma of Estacada, returned home Wednesday, from their auto tour of California.

Lodges, Clubs, Granges or other Organizations

Does your club room need a new instrument? Do you want a piano, player piano, organ or phonograph? We will make you a liberal allowance on your present instrument and will so arrange the balance of your payments, that the purchase of the new instrument will not prove an embarrassment to you.

R. M. Standish

Estacada Agent

Advise us of your wants and ask for our price list of slightly used pianos and organs.

Make No Date For Saturday Night

Announcement is hereby made that on Saturday evening August 29th, at the Springwater church, there will be a concert given by the famous Springwater Choral Society and everyone is invited to attend. A complete announcement with program will appear in next week's issue.

Teachers' Course Instructive

Miss Echo Githens of Alspaugh, who has been attending the sessions of the Teachers' Training Course at Oregon City is enthusiastic in her praises of the methods of instruction given, especially those pursued by Mrs. M. L. Fulkerson of Salem, in the handling of the primary department. Miss Githens feels that she and all teachers who availed themselves of this course are now better fitted to instruct the little tots, who are just entering school.

School Garden Private Property

The garden on the Estacada school property, east of the grain, has for some time past been in charge of Mr. Thos. Sampson of Estacada, who has personally cared for the place and its present enticing appearance is due to his efforts.

A few people, not knowing that this garden produce is the personal property of Mr. Sampson, have been helping themselves to same, and are herewith advised of the ownership.

Mrs. R. M. Standish and children of Estacada returned to their home last Friday from the seashore, owing to the serious illness of her two year old boy, who has since recuperated to the "cross-whining stage" which is a good symptom.

Ray Miller of Viola has supplanted his old white horse, with a new Ford machine, which he purchased from local agent Reed last week.

Mrs. Gale and daughter Julia of Portland and Mrs. Agnes Henderson visited at the McMillan home in Eagle Creek the first of the week.

Will Still of Eagle Creek returned last week from the harvest fields in Eastern Oregon. He reports labor plentiful and jobs scarce.

County Tax Levy

The following is a statement of all taxes levied in 1915 upon the roll of 1914 in Clackamas County.

State	$111,842.17
County	103,821.34
General School	103,275.50
Special School	110,397.80
General Road	243,001.14
Special Road	64,012.21
Special
Cities and Towns	47,716.94
Total	$784,067.10

Underwriters Make Few Changes

About two weeks ago a couple of representatives from the Underwriters Equitable Rating Bureau were in Estacada, investigating local conditions.

Aside from a raise in the insurance rate on the old dry log mill property on Zobrist street from 6.85 to 7.85, no change has been announced, although W. A. Heylman, the Estacada insurance man, is trying to obtain a more equitable rating on several of the business properties.