Pastor Moved To St Johns

Notwithstanding the popular idea that a pastor's worldly goods amount to little, the load of household furniture belonging to Rev. Rees of Estacada, while enroute to St. Johns last week, in Will Kaake's wagon, caused that vehicle to drop a wheel and slip a tire.

Mrs. Rees and children made the trip to their new home, at 1209 South Hayes St., St Johns, Or. in the Owen Smith machine while Rev. Rees accompanied the heavily loaded Kaake wagon, making the trip from Estacada in a day and a half.

The regular service at the Estacada M. E. church will occur next Sunday at 11 A. M. with Rev. Rees again in the pulpit, after a three weeks absence, during which time out of the city speakers conducted the services.

The reception which was held in the church parlors August 20th, in honor of the pastor and wife was attended by about seventy-five friends. A social evening was spent and Mr. Demoy on behalf of their friends presented to Mr. and Mrs. Rees a supply of table linen as a slight token of their esteem.

Rev. Rees will remain in Estacada until Sept. 20th, when he will finish his term here and a successor will probably be appointed at that time.

Shibleys Hold Reunion

On August 26th, under the hospitable roof of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Stormer of Estacada, a reunion was held of the descendants of A. M. Shibley of Springwater.

Four generations were represented at the dinner. The afternoon was spent on the lawn and approaching darkness only broke up the party.

* Those present were the father, A. M. Shibley; his sister, Mrs. Syrena Hickman; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Shibley; Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Stormer; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bard; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Dibble and daughter Evelyn; Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Tenny and son Elsworth; Mr. and Mrs. B. Schoenberg; Earl, Everett and Elva Shibley; Oral Stormer; Miss Minta Hickman of Portland and Marvin Hickman of Oregon City.

A good time was had and hopes were expressed that all may be present at the 1916 gathering.

Ate Wieners and Danced

About sixty-five friends enjoyed the party given last Tuesday evening by Miss Rachael Reed of Estacada, at the Garfield Country Club.

The guests arrived by auto, wagon, horseback and on foot and seemed unwilling to leave until the last "dog" vanished.

The crowd spent most of the evening in the club house, dancing and playing cards, until the bon-fire with its attendant supply of wieners, sandwiches, coffee and marshmallows was announced.

Deer Slayer Returns

After a weeks outing in the mountains near Roseburg, Or., Dr. H. V. Adix of Estacada returned last Sunday from his deer hunting trip with sufficient venison to share with his friends.

The party comprised Drs. Adix and Wells of Estacada and a friend from Roseburg, but the latter two hunters did not succeed in slipping a bullet into a deer, although each had a shot; but the unlucky buck that strayed near Dr. Adix "got his'n" four times in succession, with the last bullet passing through the heart.

China Breaks Glass

A China pheasant cock flew through an up-stairs window in the Milt Marshall home in Estacada last Monday, shattering the pane as completely as though a rock had been thrown thru it.

The bird was found perched on the foot of the bed picking glass splinters out of its feathers, while Milt picked the price of a new pane of glass from his clothing. The fate of the bird is unknown.
