Wilbur Wade. With the removal of Mr. Davis to Milwaukie, the band will suffer, but it is hoped that a new leader can be found who will continue the good work. The band at present comprises:

A. C. Davis, leader and solo cornet; Floyd Davis and Frank Schweitzer, solo cornet; Clarence Palmateer and Albert Hays, first cornet; John Ely, Joseph Pesz- necker, and Joseph Weiderhold, second cornet; E. T. Davis and Arthur Duncan, first alto; Steve Pesz- necker, second alto; Gerald Hunt, third alto; Albert Linns, Bb clarinet; Verner Anderson, first Bb clarinet; Howard Hunt, second Bb clarinet; R. E. Davis and Fred Marshall, baritone; Harry Hunt, Bb bass; Frank Marshall, Eb bass; Morris Ely, first tenor; Otto Jensen, second tenor; H. B. Davis and L. J. Pal- mateer, first trombone; R. G. Pal- mateer, second trombone; Ernest Amacher, snare drum; F. H. Davis, bass drum.

The premium badge to the oldest settler was awarded to W. H. Wade of Currinsville and his many friends hope he will be able to be present at many future fairs.

Among the out of town visitors were Judge Anderson and Messrs. Knight and Mattoon of the County Court; G. B. Dimick; Chris Schubel, Sheriff Wilson, Miss Iva Harrington, County Clerk; Dunn, Treasurer; Editor Brodie of the Oregon City Enterprise and his assistant, W. E. Hassler, all of Oregon City; John Brown of Gresham; Messrs. Hunt, Town- send, Myers and Kelly of the P. R. L. & P. Co. of Portland.

The judges of the various de- partments were: Agriculture, R. R. Routledge, Portland; livestock, Prof. E. B. Fitts, Oregon Agri- cultural college; poultry, E. H. Bauer, Portland; fancy work, Miss Murray, Portland.

Addresses during the three days, were given by N. C. Maris, department of public instruction, on "Beef Cattle;" Miss Turlay, Oregon Agricultural college, a cooking demonstration; E. J. Ladd, Portland, on "Poultry Raising;" C. M. McAllister of the Portland Union Stock Yards on "Hog Raising;" "Farmer" C. L. Smith of the O.-W. R. & N. Ry. Co. on "Corn Raising."

The pick of all agricultural ex- hibits shown at this fair have this week been packed and shipped to Canby, where they will be shown at the County Fair, Sept. 20th to 23rd, and from there will probab- ly be taken to the State Fair at Salem, which occurs the week following. The East Clackamas Exhibit is in charge of Messrs. P. F. Standish and R. C. Deming of Garfield.

Faculty Reception

The public are cordially invit- ed to attend a reception to be given Friday evening, Sept. 17th at 8 o'clock at the school, in hon- or of the faculty.

Mrs. Viola Douglass and her granddaughters, Mildred and Florice of Eagle Creek returned home from Eastern Oregon last Saturday evening.

W. H. Kandle of Cloverdale is spending a few days in Estacada.

Prune Drying Here

Reports are being received of prune drying beginning in all sections and a good crop is an- ticipated. Among the Spring- water growers are Messrs. Gut- tridge, Kilgore, Howell and Frank Smith and on the Garfield side, the Krigbaum brothers, Ed Linn, Walt Snuffin, P. M. Wagner, Crawford brothers, Mary Stubbe and others.

Harvest Dance

Bills are already out calling at- tention to the Harvest Dance, Saturday evening, Sept. 25th at Cogswell's Hall in Eagle Creek. As this is the first dance of the winter season, a big crowd is ex- pected to attend.

Eagle Creek Resident Killed

The many friends of Mr. O. E. Full of Eagle Creek were greatly shocked to hear of his sudden death last week, as the result of an accident in a logging camp near Black Rock, Or.

While working in the woods, a week ago Monday, he was struck by a falling limb, breaking his back, death following the second day after.

The body was brought to Port- land for interment in the Rose City Cemetery.

Mr. Full came from North Da- kota about eight years ago, lo- cating in Eagle Creek, where he is survived by a wife and two small sons, Glen and Roy.

Council Meeting

The regular meeting of the Es- tacada City Council was held on Tuesday evening. Two of the councilmen were absent but the others accomplished several im- portant matters.

Bills were approved and order- ed paid, where authority for the work done was shown.

Action was taken authorizing Marshal Ames to repair all city sidewalks and to notify owners of defective walks to repair same at once, or the city will do so and the expense will be placed as a lien against the property.

Owing to the illness of Recor- der Devore, a special meeting will be held in a few days to con- sider important phases of the water question.
