V. P. Butler of Cazadero, was injured last Sunday, while at work near the Faraday plant. Butler was up a telephone pole, when it fell, dislocating his shoulder. The injury was dressed by Dr. Adix and aside from the inconvenience, the patient is feeling little the worse for the fall.

Mrs. C. C. Saling of Currinsville, entertained a few friends at a delightful dinner party last Wednesday evening.

Harry Robinson of Garfield, the David Harum of the Clackamas, is spending considerable time in Estacada these pleasant days, looking for a hoss-trade. Harry originally started out with a string-halted calf and in two years has successfully traded until he now has a spanking good team and buggy. Traders may meet Harry at this office, but must tie their animals in the alley.

Mrs. J. L. Hewitt and daughter Ruth of Portland were weekend guests at the S. E. Wooster home in Estacada.
