News Notes From All Sections

Al Stevens of Garfield, who is spending a month's vacation near Roseburg, reports having shot one third of the number of deer which the law allows each hunter.

Ken Bartlett former E. H. S. athlete was last week awarded the varsity "O" for having played football in one entire game with the University of Oregon team. Ken is one of the youngest and highest men to ever receive this honor and it reflects credit on his high school training.

A number of young folks of Garfield, attended a dance at Damascus last Saturday night, as the guests of Miss Esther Revell, who is teacher there.

J. W. Reed and Irwine D. Wright of Estacada have already begun hunting for their Thanksgiving dinner with a Ford auto. On last week's trip they succeeded in running over a fine fat turkey, but owing to the close proximity of the owner's farm house, they were unable to bring home the bird. Some sort of a turkey catcher should be placed on the rear of the machine, for picking up the dead and wounded.

Mrs. L. J. Palmateer of Garfield is the possessor of a handsome new single buggy. Her brother E. Burlingame of Fairview, Or. motored over to Garfield for a visit this week and bought her the vehicle in exchange for a cow he fancied.

Horner Brothers' mill in Dodge report having sold over 160,000 feet of lumber in the past year to Clackamas County, most of it consisted of road planking.

The game law violators will have to keep on the move from now on, as B. S. Patton, Estacada's deputy game warden is now the owner of a Ford machine, purchased through J. W. Reed, and is practising for high speed.

Miss Helen Ross and brother Ray, of Portland, were the week-end guests of Miss Ednah and Roscoe Deming of Garfield.

Miss Eleanor Bews of the Estacada High school, who is living at the W. A. Heylman home, received a fall last Thursday night, which resulted in a broken wrist.

Mrs. Wm. Morris of New York was the guest of Mrs. R. M. Standish of Estacada for a few days last week.

Rufus Wright of Enterprise, Or. visited for a few days last week at the home of his brother, Irwin D. Wright of Estacada.

The chicken tamale supper, served by the ladies of the M. E. church last Friday night, was well attended and netted the ladies about $35. above expenses.

THE GOOD JUDGE ARRANGES TO GO BIRD SHOOTING

WHEN you're tramping all over creation after game, you don't want a big bunch of ordinary tobacco sweating in your hip pocket. There is tobacco satisfaction for two, and plenty of it, in the sweat-proof sanitary pouch of Real Tobacco Chew.

A little chew of pure, rich, mellow tobacco—seasoned and sweetened just enough—cuts out so much of the grinding and spitting.

ASK YOUR DEALER FOR W-B CUT CHEWING TOBACCO. IT IS THE NEW "REAL TOBACCO CHEW"—CUT LONG SHRED.

Take less than one-quarter the old size chew. It will be more satisfying than a mouthful of ordinary tobacco. Just take a nibble of it until you find the strength chew that suits you, then see how easily and evenly the real tobacco taste comes, how it satisfies, how much less you have to spit, how few chews you take to be tobacco satisfied. That's why it is The Real Tobacco Chew. That's why it costs less in the end.

The taste of pure, rich tobacco does not need to be covered up. An excess of licorice and sweetening makes you spit too much.

One small chew takes the place of two big chews of the old kind.

“Notice how the salt brings out the rich tobacco taste.”

WEYMAN-BRUTON COMPANY, 50 Union Square, New York City

Dan Stahlnecker, wife and two sons of Wilsonville, Or. are spending a few days with Louis Vallen and family of Elwood.

A. Wiederhold of Bissell spent the week-end on a business trip to Sandy.

W. Paulsen of Portland spent a day last week at the home of his brother, Julius Paulsen, of George.

A. Kane of Portland spent last Sunday on his homestead near Elwood.

Wm. Hicinbotham of Viola is jitneying his Ford these days to and from Portland.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Claude Cummins of Eagle Creek, Oct. 20th a daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Tannler of Viola are proud to be called grandparents, as a son was born last week to their daughter Minnie in Portland.
