Crowd Attends Shoot

The Estacada Rod & Gun Club's annual shoot of last Saturday, was a big success, despite the drizzling rain. In the forenoon, but a few sportsmen contested, but from after lunch until dark, the steady bombardment from rifles and shotguns resembled a duplicate of the battle of Ypres.

At the traps, exceptionally good scores were made and undoubtedly a five man team could be selected from this vicinity, which would hold its own against any similar bunch of scatter-gun artists in the state.

Thirteen turkeys, a few geese and a score of minor birds were awarded the winners. In many instances the contestants shot for the practice only and good scores were made.

Sunday morning's wind storm unroofed the massive, yet beautiful, club house of the E. R. & G. Club, but a couple of members with a hatchet, hammer and saw, soon repaired the damage, so everything will be in readiness for another big shoot Thanksgiving Day morning.

Remember—there will be a second big shoot on Thanksgiving Day, beginning promptly at 9 A. M. and lasting until 2 P. M. Many trap enthusiasts were unable to be present Saturday, so this latter meet will be held, to which everyone is invited. Shooting will be for sport or prizes and handicaps will be inaugurated as far as possible.
