

Mr Hog Raiser

Barley-Shorts and Kaffir Corn Meal,
Extra Heavy Shorts and Ground Barley

Are the feeds you are going to need to properly top off your hogs.

For Dairy Stock-

Alfalfa Meal and Shady Brook

To get the best results from your milch cows.

A good supply of all other Stock Food and Flour on hand

E. D. Allen Estacada Lumber & Produce Co. W. J. Samson

The Week That Saves You Money

START
Your Holiday
Shopping
NOW

Make
This
An Electrical
Christmas

Gifts To Fit Any Purse A Few Yuletide Hints

Massage Vibrators
Coffee Percolators
Luminous Radiators
Kitchen Ranges
Shaving Mirrors
Cigar Lighters
Foot Warmers
Disc Stoves

Sewing Machine Motors
Curling Iron Heaters
Washing Machines
Vacuum Cleaners
Boudoir Lamps
Hair Dryers
Waffle Irons
Toasters

Library Lamps
Chafing Dishes
Shaving Mugs
Milk Warmers
Tea Kettles
Flat Irons
Samovars
Ovens

And many other useful and practical things.

A small deposit will hold any article Until Called For

Mr. and Mrs. Weltie and Mrs. Freddie of Monroe, Wisconsin, are guests at the J. E. Schenk home in Springwater this week, en-route to the San Francisco Exposition. Mrs. Schenk has been confined to her bed for the past few days, suffering from an attack of appendicitis.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanford Cox of Elwood was brightened last Monday by the advent of a 7 lb baby boy.

Charley Tallman and family of Springwater expect to leave soon for Goldendale, Wash.

90 Pounds in 60 Days

Edward Shearer of Garfield, the winner of one of the pedigreed Poland-China boars at the last East Clackamas County Fair, awarded by the P. R. L. & P. Co., reports that the animal has made a wonderful growth in the past sixty days, having added over 90 pounds in weight.

This fine boar is of the Oregon Grand Champion strain, its sire being the famous champion boar, belonging to J. R. Cole of Molalla.

Six of Mr. Shearer's neighbors have agreed to each purchase a pedigreed Poland-China sow, so that the 1916 East Clackamas Fair will contain entries of some of the finest pedigreed hogs in the state.

Garfield Honor Roll

Those on the Roll of Honor of the Garfield school for October included—Howard Davis, Evelyn Davis, Leo Pesznecker, Everett Krigbaum, Lucy Krigbaum, William Shearer, Gilbert Shearer, Catherine Laing, Leta Posson, Harry Duncan, Edith Perry, Laura Robinson, Tom Robinson, Fred Robinson.

Invincible Concert

The Invincibles, the young ladies class of the Methodist Sunday School is planning an interesting concert to be held next Tuesday evening, November the thirtieth in the High School auditorium.

The program which will consist of musical numbers readings and "stunts" will begin at 7:30 sharp. The admission price for young and old is ten cents, and the entire proceeds will be used to help defray the cost of the new basement of the church.

Boy Loses Eye

Charles, Jr., commonly known as "Buster," the two year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Dubois of Estacada, underwent an operation last Saturday at St Vincent's Hospital in Portland, which resulted in the removal of his right eye.

The little fellow for sometime past has suffered from an affection of the eye, but until he was examined by a Portland specialist recently, it was not supposed to be anything more serious than a muscular trouble. On investigation, the specialists discovered a tumor inside of the eye, necessitating the removal of the entire organ.

Since the operation, "Buster" has felt much better and within a few days will be brought home from the hospital.

Youth Accidentally Shot

Tuesday Morning's Oregonian, contains the following item, which owing to the phone lines being out of order, the Progress has been unable to authenticate: "Grenville Cupper, 19, who lives at Eagle Creek, Or. received a discharge of a shotgun in the right knee yesterday afternoon, when a shotgun which his brother was cleaning was accidentally discharged. He was taken to Portland last night to the Good Samaritan Hospital."

Pacific International Livestock Exposition

The Portland Union Stock Yards Company extend a cordial invitation to all residents of Eastern Clackamas County to attend the fourth annual Pacific International Livestock Exposition, to be held at North Portland, December 6 to 11, 1915.

Growing Older.

As I see it, growing older is the process of the reconciliation of the spirit to life. Living is simply getting acquainted with the world we live in. The real purpose of a body is that it shall be used up, worn out—and then thrown away—in feeding the spirit. Whatever happens to you in the outer world translates itself finally into such a substance. That is what it is for. Just as the purpose of food is not to look pretty on china plates, but to be transformed into blood and muscle. It is in the natural order of things that the body should be thus used and exhausted. The unnatural and horrible thing is that the body should be worn out and yet the spirit remain un nourished. —Atlantic.

Correct Diagnosis.

John Fiske, the historian, was once interrupted by his wife, who complained that their son had been very disrespectful to some neighbors. Mr. Fiske called the youngster into his study.

"My boy, is it true that you called Mrs. Jones a fool?"

The boy hung his head. "Yes, father."

"And did you call Mr. Jones a worse fool?"

"Yes, father."

Mr. Fiske frowned and pondered for a minute. Then he said:

"Well, my son, that is just about the distinction I should make."

No Fire Within.

Times have changed. Our fathers for some strange reason preferred a cold meeting house to one which was warmed by artificial heat. When a stove was put into the Old South church, Boston, in 1783 a newspaper of contemporary date contained this significant lament:

Extinct the sacred fire of love,
Our zeal grown cold and dead,
In the house of God we fixed a stove
To warm us in their stead.

Misunderstood.

"How now?"

"This fellow told me he was going to show me the beauties of the town."

"Well, didn't he?"

"He meant parks and office buildings. I was prepared to see some feminine loveliness."—Pittsburgh Post

The Variety.

"What kind of a melon is it which the corporations cut?"

"Well, judging by the condition of their stock, it must often be a sort of watermelon."—Baltimore American

Between friends frequent reproof makes the friendship distant.—Confucius.