Garfield Grange

Garfield Grange held a very interesting meeting Saturday. A goodly number of members were present and quite a lot of enthusiasm was manifested in laying plans for better work for the coming year. The next meeting being election of officers it was voted to meet on Dec. 18th, instead of the 25th. The lecturer announced that there would be a "free for all spelling match" at the next meeting. A bountiful dinner of chicken, cakes, pies, etc., was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. A. G. Bartholomew, of Heppner, Oregon, is visiting her children, Mrs. E. E. and Mrs. C. C. Saling of Currinsville and F. Bartholomew of Estacada.

Mrs. W. R. Blackburn and family of Oregon City spent a couple of days last week at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Willis Yonce of Estacada.

Mrs. L. Marrs of Salem, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. L. Hale and son, R. H. Currin of Currinsville.

Beckwith, The Jeweler

Former Editor Visits Estacada

G. E. La Follette, formerly editor of the Estacada Progress and at present editor of the Helena (Mont.) Independent, spent a day visiting among friends in Estacada this week. He is headed for his ranch near Crescent, Or. where he will take a lay-off until next Spring.

A number of Mr. La Follette's old friends tendered an impromptu turkey dinner in his honor, Monday evening.

Mrs. Ben Tannler, of Viola, is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Forbes of Portland.
