Stock Journal

The Western Stock Journal, which has been published in Oregon City for the past four years, by Grant Dimick, was sold last week to the Portland company publishing the Western Farmer, of which E. E. Faville is editor and manager.

158,579 Pounds

Potato Buyer Chris Johnson of George this week completed the buying and shipping of potatoes from the George district, through Estacada, amounting in all to 158,579 pounds, or four carloads, for which he paid over $1200.

Power Houses Open

Supt. Fred Robley of the River Mill and Faraday power houses wishes to announce that during Electrical Week, now being observed, all parties desiring to visit and inspect the power stations, may do so without having to obtain the regulation permit. This courtesy will be extended until next Sunday night, December 5th.

Are You Going?

Probably many local farmers and livestock growers are planning to attend the coming Fifth Annual Pacific International Livestock Exposition to be held at North Portland, December 6th to 11th.

It has been suggested that a special car be chartered and a date set for another Estacada excursion. If all parties contemplating visiting the show will advise the Progress office and if a day can be decided upon, a special car can be arranged for.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Klaetsch of Estacada entertained twenty-one friends and relatives at a Thanksgiving dinner last Thursday.

W. O. W. Dance

Prospect Drill Company, No. 140, Woodmen of the World of Portland will give a big dance at Cogswell's Hall in Eagle Creek, Saturday evening, Dec. 11th in honor of the newly formed Eagle Creek Camp No. 539, W. O. W.

A big crowd of Portland society folks will make the trip by special cars to attend this affair and everyone is invited to join with them. Tickets will be $1. with good music and lunch promised. During the intermissions, the Portland Drill Team will pull off some fancy stunts.

Cow Mistaken For Deer

Curt Wilcox of Garfield, while rounding up some of his cattle in the mountains, in the vicinity of the headwaters of the North Fork, discovered one of his beef cows dead, with two bullet holes through the heart. The animal had probably been killed by some amateur hunter during the final days of the deer season.

Largest Dance Of Season

The Thanksgiving dance given by the Estacada Volunteer Fire Department last Thursday evening at the Pavilion brought out the biggest crowd that has attended a dance this year.

The music by the Bronson-Erickson orchestra, with Miss Hattie Belfils at the piano, was excellent, with latest airs played and fine time maintained.

The affair netted the firemen over $20. clear above expenses.

Coon Boyer of Estacada, who was arrested and placed in jail Thanksgiving night for disorderly conduct, was released the following morning after a justice court hearing, as the complainant failed to appear.
