Passes Away Peacefully

Mr. W. A. Wash of Estacada, died Wednesday evening at the family home, his death, like his life, being a peaceful one.

While his final passing was a great shock to his family and friends, it was not unexpected, as the beloved old gentleman had been an invalid for several years and for the past few days had been sinking rapidly.

The deceased is survived by his widow and daughter Eva, the latter being in charge of the primary work in the Estacada schools.

Arrangements for the funeral had not been consummated up to the time of going to press but it is likely the services will occur Friday with interment in Portland.

The heartfelt sympathy of the many friends is extended to Mrs. Wash and Miss Eva in this time of sorrow and grief.

Livestock Show Now On

Many farmers from this part of the county are spending a day or two this week at the Pacific International Livestock Exposition at the Portland Union Stockyards. Many local visitors contemplate purchasing high-bred stock to raise the standard of the home animals. The exposition closes Saturday, the 6th.

Many Candidates For Postmaster

As it is likely that there will be a reappointment of a postmaster in Estacada within a short time, owing to the change in the political regime, many local people have expressed their willingness to accept the responsibilities of the office.

Postmaster Johnson, the present incumbent although a Republican, some time ago, presented to the proper authorities a petition, signed by the majority of residents of Estacada and surrounding country, regardless of their political faith, asking for his reappointment.

W. A. Heylman of Estacada, the father of Estacada Democracy, is seeking the office as the Democratic candidate, while E. S. Womer has submitted a petition, asking for the appointment in the event of the non-reappointment of Mr. Johnson.

The latest aspirant to the postal duties, is Miss Kittie Reagan, who for several years was Mr. Johnson's assistant. Miss Reagan's petition, like Mr. Womer's, requests the office, in case Mr. Johnson is not reappointed.

At one time, Owen Smith was considered a candidate, but it is believed he has since withdrawn.

County Court On Program

The three members of the Clackamas county court are in Portland, where they are attending the convention of the state association of county judges and commissioners, now in three day session.

Commissioner Mattoon, who is treasurer of the association, besides presenting his annual report, will be one of the speakers on the subject of "Financing the County Road Work." with Judge Anderson talking on the question of the "Surfacing of County Roads" and Com. Knight discussed "Location and Drainage of Roads."

Lands Record Rainbow

Ed Boner of Estacada Wednesday noon displayed for the edification and envy of the Estacada fishermen, a four pound rainbow trout, which along with about a dozen smaller fish, he had caught that morning in the Clackamas near Dog Creek.

The rainbow was a handsome fish and when cleaned, weighed 3 pounds, seven ounces. Ed claims he caught it on salmon egg bait, and for fifteen minutes had a lively tussle landing it.

The 12:55 down train that noon collected over half a dollar extra in 5c fares to River Mill, from local fishermen who had been lying dormant since the fly casting season ended.

Oregon City Election

Monday's election returns in the county seat proved that the people wished to get away from the old administration and take up with a new. In the election of E. C. Hackett as mayor, a new regime will begin, which will probably be followed with a general shake-up in city affairs.

Paul R. Meinig was elected mayor of Sandy by a vote of 91 to 85, and our semi-Estacada merchant, F. E. Beckwith was retained as recorder, by a large plurality.
