Persistency

"Supposin' fish don't bite at first,
What are you goin' to do?
Throw down the pole, chuck out your bait,
And say your fishin's thru?
You bet you aint; you're goin' to fish.

And fish, and fish, and wait,
Until you've caught a basketful,
Or used up all your bait.

"Supposin' success don't come at first,

What are you goin' to do?
Throw up the sponge and kick
yourself,

And growl, and fret, and stew?
You bet you aint; you're goin' to
bait,

And bait, and bait ag'in,
Until success holds on your hook,
For grit is sure to win.

"One step won't take you very far,

You've got to keep on walkin';
One word won't tell folks what you are,

You've got to keep on talkin'.
One inch won't make you very tall,

You've got to keep on growin';
One little ad won't do it all,

You've got to keep 'em goin'."

A Correction

In last week's Progress, it was stated that Owen Smith of Estacada had withdrawn from the candidacy for the Estacada post-mastership. This report is incorrect, as Mr. Smith and his friends assure the editor, that he is still in the running and hopes to land the job.

coin cash in hand, all the right, title and interest which the within named defendants or either of them, had on the date of the mortgage herein or since had in or to the above described real property or any part thereof, to satisfy said execution, judgement order, decree, interest, costs and all accruing costs.

W. J. Wilson, Sheriff of Clackamas County, Oregon.

By E. C. Hackett, Deputy.
Dated, Oregon City, Ore.,
Nov. 25th, 1915.

Cold winds may blow
And the rain may fall
But well we know
The FORD runs through all.

No Indeed we haven't taken the Ford agency nor are we going to run a jitney, but we have bought a Ford to use in our endeavors to serve our many patrons.

We didn't buy it out of the profits of last year but out of the profits we are in hopes of making the coming year.

We want to serve you better during 1916 than we have this year and to this end we are going to spend more time among our rancher friends, finding out their wishes and needs, and if possible supplying them.

Quality, price and service are to be our watchwords, and its upon the latter we are now trying to improve, and that Ford car is to be at the disposal of our patrons, to serve them, as they command.

With our complete line of Grain, Hay, Feed, Flour,
Groceries and Sundries,
in connection with our produce exchange department, we feel that it will be to your interest to consult us before buying elsewhere.
