Woodmen's Dance

Bills are already out, inviting everyone to be present at the dance to be given January 22nd, at Cogswell's Hall, Eagle Creek, by the newly formed Eagle Creek Camp of the Woodmen of the World.

It is planned to have special cars run from Portland, bringing the Multnomah County Woodmen, so with the local dancers, a big crowd is assured.

The majority of the local college students, who have been spending the holidays at home, have returned to college, among them being Miss Rachel Reed, Ken Bartlett, Chester Womer, LeRoy Gard, Miss Edith Anderson and others.

Coons Celebrate

Mr. and Mrs. Irwin D. Wright of Estacada, entertained about fifty friends Thursday evening, at a novel black face party, in the Odd Fellows Hall.

All guests entered into the spirit of the affair by assuming the most ludicrous of nigger costumes, from porters to darky dudes, minstrels and wenches, with "Topsies" plentiful.

With dancing, refreshments and games, the party held on until the early hours of the morning, while the black grease paint is still holding on, behind some of the ears and around the necks of the merry-makers.

Earl Wagner of Estacada has returned from a two months sojourn among relatives on the coast.

Assistant Buys A Dodge

Assistant Manager, Lee Bronson of Tracy & Givens, last week, with his brother-in-law, Dave Fleming of River Mill, purchased the 1915 Dodge automobile, formerly owned by Ed Folsom of Springwater.

Now complications, altercations and falsifications have begun to brew in the Tracy & Givens establishment, for while the boss firmly believes that his Ford machine is the best little traveller in this county, he doubts whether it would be entirely appropriate and in good taste, for his assistant manager to be driving down the road in a luxurious Dodge car. Still the boss promises to throw so much dust on Lee's car, that the respective makes won't be discernible.

Sleds Resurrected

With the present fall of snow, all kinds, sorts and conditions of sleds, coasters and toboggans have been resurrected by the boys and girls. A crowd of Estacada youngsters have been coasting from daylight till dark, on the hillside on the Holder property, on Shafford Ave. and on other nearby hills.

Annual Ball Big Success

The seventh annual ball of the Estacada Volunteer Fire Department, held New Years Eve at the Estacada Pavilion, brought out a big crowd, with the high school students much in evidence.

With the Bronson-Erickson-Belfils orchestra dispensing their usual good music, the dancing continued until 3 A. M., with a half hour intermission for lunch, said lunch being up to the standards formerly set by the firemen, the affair netting over $40.

Dillon Wins The Beauty Prize

At a reception held Thursday evening, in honor of Rev. Spiess, at the Garfield Zion Church, a voting contest was held to determine the homeliest man present. While Alex Botkin and Rev. Spiess put up a good run for the honor, W. W. Dillon won by two lengths.

The reception consisted of a musical program, interspersed with games and ended with refreshments.

Born—January 2nd, to Mr. and Mrs. C. M. O'Neel of Currinsville, a son.

Mrs. A. K. Morton and family of Estacada have moved into the Adix house near the Methodist Church, formerly occupied by C. F. Frazier and family.

Miss Helen Keith, of the Estacada High School, returned Wednesday morning from her home at La Center, Wash., where she spent the holidays with her folks.

Read the Following Proposition

To Our Patrons:-

As you know, it is impossible for any furniture store in a small city to carry complete lines of furniture, especially of the high-grade lines in stock.

The buyer naturally, desires to buy where he or she can select from a big assortment and at the same time, where a charge account can be obtained.

In order to fill this demand, we have arranged with Heywood Bros. & Wakefield Co. of Portland, who are one of the largest furniture manufacturers in the country and maintain the largest salesrooms and most complete assortment of furniture in the Northwest, to serve our customers direct.

When you are in the market for furniture, call and let us give you a letter to the Heywood Bros. & Wakefield Co., then you can select the furniture from their immense stock, and have same charged to your account with us.

It will cost you no more than as though you were buying direct for cash—you will get the finest of furniture and you will be patronizing your home merchant.

Isn't this a fair proposition? All we ask is that you give us the opportunity to serve you.
