Broadway Stars to Appear

The residents of Estacada and surrounding country are to be treated this month to a galaxy of spectacular and dramatic theatrical entertainments, with two shows already being advertised.

The first one will occur, Friday evening, January 21st at Boner's Theatre, when the dramatic talent of the Estacada High School will present a clever farce, entitled "A Scrap of Paper". The high school's annual play is always well worth double the admission price asked, so a full house is assured.

On Saturday evening, January 29th, a comedy entitled, "Three Hats" will be given at the Boner Theatre. This play being staged under the auspices of the C. I. C., the proceeds being for the library fund.

The cast in "Three Hats" is no amateur affair, being headed by such well known Broadway favorites, as Mr. and Mrs. Irwin-dyright, who have been playing on Broadway for three years past, at the corner of 2nd St. Among the other actors and actresses will be, the Misses Elizabeth and Roberta Reid of Garfield; Mrs. A. K. Morton, and Messrs. Tom Morton, Harley

Walter Douglass, accompanied by his wife, returned home the other day from Portland, where he had been in the Good Samaritan hospital for some days. He is improving, but is rather weak yet.

A. D. McMillan and wife are soon to move away from this vicinity, we regret to say. They will be missed by the neighbors.

George Priester of Logan spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Douglass.

H. F. Gibson and wife, of Barton, were the guests of James Gibson Sunday.

The de Ronne brothers have been falling and sawing up trees into cordwood the past week.

Jack Saunders and a Portland butcher were out Monday looking up beef cattle.

Miss Mable Beckett left last week for Portland where she is to take the office of nurse in the Good Samaritan hospital. We wish her much success in her new work.

Fred Moehnke was a guest of his sister, Mrs. Roy Douglass, during the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Udell, of Dover, were visiting with the latter's father, James Gibson, last Thursday.

H. S. and R. B. Gibson, Roy and Carl Douglass took to Estacada Monday some hogs, which were sold to Buyer Lucke, who shipped them to Portland.

Mrs. A. D. McMillan, who was the guest of Portland relatives for two or three weeks, returned home last Tuesday.

The Douglass Mutual Telephone Company held its annual meeting on Monday night. The following officers were elected: R. B. Gibson, president; Ed Naylor, vice-president; H. S. Gibson, secretary-treasury. Will Douglass was elected to succeed himself as director. Ray Woodle and Alex Baker are the other two directors. Mr. Affolter, of the Dover Telephone Company, was present at the meeting, also, Mr. Clarke and son Carl. They wished the Douglass Company to co-operate with them and put up some new poles between the foot of Gibson hill and Eagle Creek Grange hall, which they agreed to do, for both companies use the same poles for some miles.

Trowbridge, Walter Givens, and Dave Eschleman of Estacada. All participants are now holding regular rehearsals, under the direction of Mesdames Frazier and Heylman of Estacada.

Read the Following Proposition

To Our Patrons:-

As you know, it is impossible for any furniture store in a small city to carry complete lines of furniture, especially of the high-grade lines in stock.

The buyer naturally, desires to buy where he or she can select from a big assortment and at the same time, where a charge account can be obtained.

In order to fill this demand, we have arranged with Heywood Bros. & Wakefield Co. of Portland, who are one of the largest furniture manufacturers in the country and maintain the largest salesrooms and most complete assortment of furniture in the Northwest, to serve our customers direct.

When you are in the market for furniture, call and let us give you a letter to the Heywood Bros. & Wakefield Co., then you can select the furniture from their immense stock, and have same charged to your account with us.

It will cost you no more than as though you were buying direct for cash—you will get the finest of furniture and you will be patronizing your home merchant.

Isn't this a fair proposition? All we ask is that you give us the opportunity to serve you.
