Ladies Attention

In as much as we are one of the Estacada business houses participating in the

Thousand Dollar Merchandise Prize Voting Contest

we have decided to postpone further drawings on the Weekly Set of Dishes, until about September 1st.

Remember we give 1 vote with each 1c cash purchase in the new Voting Contest.

WM. DALE COMPANY

Dry Goods Notions Millinery

Loyalty to the home newspaper, and a desire to help increase its circulation and prestige and make it a power for good in the community, is the reason the Estacada merchants, now conducting the novel THOUSAND DOLLAR MERCHANDISE PRIZE VOTING CONTEST, are allowing

The Estacada Progress

to give 1,000 Votes for every Dollar paid on Subscription Accounts, whether Renewals or New Subscribers.

Stop and consider — a renewal of your subscription now for $1. will entitle you to just as many votes as a $10. purchase would bring elsewhere.

The Progress is the weekly newspaper of Eastern Clackamas County and over 95% of its subsribers renewed during 1915, so renewals and new subscribers are not hard to get. So get in the contest early, while the "picking's easy."

Call at the Progress office and let us help you get started from our lists of names.

Light in Weight
Strong in Power and Endurance

Oakland

Six-$895, here

Here is a six, weighing 2100 pounds, yet is large enough to carry five people comfortably.

Develops 30 to 35 horse-power, and, with its light weight, will carry you easily over any road.

Business judgement demands that you consider this new OAKLAND Six if you are in the market for a light car.

Hogs Get Drunk

Some sections may be maintaining "blind-pigs" during these days of prohibition, but it remains for Alspaugh to announce "intoxicated hogs"

John Githens believes he has solved the problem of making alcohol from frozen squashes, at least he knows that frozen squashes contain the necessary bug juice, as his herd of hogs last week became disgracefully drunk and disorderly, after partaking of a dessert course consisting of the frigid dainties.

Carload Of Autos On Way

The Clackamas Garage of Estacada, agents for the Dodge and Chevrolet automobiles, announce that a carload of new Dodge cars is expected in Estacada in a few days, part of which will be used to fill orders already placed.

Leo Rath of George is only waiting for the present inclement weather to subside, before beginning the erection of a big new barn on his place.

Estacada Man Locates At Monitor

J. R. Townsend of Estacada, who for the past few months has conducted a shoe repair shop on Broadway, last week disposed of his stock and has gone to Monitor, where he will engage in the butcher business.

Barr Buys Out Competitor

J. V. Barr, the dean of Estacada blacksmiths, last week purchased the blacksmithing stock of Ed Folsom and has added it to his supply of horse-shoes, nails, etcetera.

Ed Folsom and wife left Saturday for Dayton, Oregon, where he will continue blacksmithing.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Sparks of Estacada entertained Monday evening, in honor of her cousin, Mrs. Barbara Mengel, who after an extended visit here, is leaving next week for her home in the east. Whist was the entertainment for the evening, followed by a dainty supper and "talk fest."

Pyles to Return East

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Pyle, are sorry to learn of their contemplated removal from Estacada, where they have resided for several years.

The Pyles expect to leave next Saturday and will return to their former home in Baltimore, where Mr. Pyle will engage in business.

Several farewell parties were given this week in honor of the departing friends, Mr. and Mrs. Givens entertained Wednesday evening and the Eastern Star gave them a farewell reception Tuesday evening.

Doc. Adix Takes the Cake,

Mrs. R. H. Currin of Currinsville, although not ordinarily addicted to betting, last Sunday made a wager of one four decker whipped cream cake, against an ordinary dollar, that Doctor Adix could not run his Dodge car through to the Spackman ranch, in Upper Garfield.

While the doctor has issued no invitations as yet, whipped cream cake will be served at his house in the near future, for the Dodge car with five passengers made the round trip to Spackman's without any trouble.

Estacada Boy Marries Viola Girl

Announcement is made of the marriage at Vancouver last Thursday of Miss Emma Bridenstine, 17 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Bridenstine of Viola, to C. P. Boyer of Estacada.
