

Juniors to Play at Logan

The Sky Riders, the successful play given by the Junior class of the Estacada High School a couple of weeks ago in Estacada will be repeated at the Logan Grange Hall, Saturday evening, March 25th.

While the play netted a good profit from its first presentation, it is too good a sample of amateur theatricals to merely be given once, and as many people have asked for a repetition, should prove a profitable move.

More Concrete Walks

The concrete sidewalks have been finished on Broadway, Estacada, in front of the C. I. C. Rooms and News office. The work was done by contractor L. H. Burd.

The contract has been let for a similar walk on the Berry property on Broadway, in front of the Beckwith Jewelry Store and work has already begun on the walks on the two sides of the Park property, at the corner of 2nd and Broadway.

Bartlett Declares Candidacy

E. W. Bartlett of Estacada, who some time ago announced his intention of becoming a candidate on the Republican ticket for the nomination of County District Attorney, this week officially filed his Declaration of Candidacy with Secretary of State, Ben W. Olcott.

In his declaration, he says "If I am nominated and elected, I will, during the term of office, conduct its affairs in a business-like manner, expeditiously and without fear or favor.

As legal advisor to the County Court, I shall endeavor to assist in reducing the expenditures of the county, in order to relieve the taxpayer of excessive taxation.

I shall diligently guard the Juvenile Court and lend all assistance to the uplifting and reformation of the unfortunate ones within its jurisdiction.

Believing that the office is one created by the people for the upbuilding of the community, morally and socially, I shall enforce the law with all my power fearlessly, without favor and discrimination."

His slogan is "To fearlessly work for the best interests of the taxpayers."

Mr. Bartlett is one of the best known men in the eastern part of the county, having practised law in Estacada for the past eight years and having been closely identified with the growth and development of community, being a leader in the work of the Eastern Clackamas Taxpayers' League and a member of the East Clackamas County Fair Board, and the past six years, has acted as the Republican County Committeeman from Precinct 1, Estacada.

R. C. Deming of Garfield returned home Monday, after a four months absence in the east, where he visited his parents at Yonkers, N. Y.; attended the National Canners' Convention at Louisville; investigated the eastern and middle western market conditions for Oregon fruits and especially loganberries and attended to other business matters.
