Jim Sevier and his auto truck, loaded with the families of Will and Chas. Hicinbotham and Mrs. Sevier, made a pleasure trip to Bethel Sunday afternoon, calling at the J. Hughes home.

Who Said Hard Times?

With not a house in Estacada for rent and several new families looking for locations and with six automobiles purchased in this vicinity in the past five days, it does not look as though the proverbial wolf was hanging around the doors this spring.

Among the auto buyers is one, Irwin D. Wright, cashier of the Estacada State Bank, who Tuesday purchased a handsome seven passenger Chalmers "640" car. Just what the "640" stands for, only an expert knows, but it probably represents the speed per hour, or with a decimal mark between the 6 and 4, represents the amount still on hand from a $2,000. bill after buying one of the toys. While the seating capacity of the machine is only seven, the salesman had to guarantee that it would carry not less than eighteen adults and a smat-of children, before the sale was closed, for when I. D. Wright does the motorman act, he will not be satisfied unless all of his friends and neighbors are enjoying the ride too.

J. W. Reed of Estacada and H. C. Stephens of George, candidates for the commissionership and legislature respectively, were speakers on the program of the Live Wires at Oregon City, Tuesday.

The front of the News office building has this week been repainted, greatly improving the appearance of the property and adding to the looks of Broadway. If more property owners would spend the $4. to $8. necessary to repaint the front of their buildings, it would prove an economical investment and help liven the town's appearance.

Alf Drill of Faraday, after a two weeks sojourn at the Good Samaritan Hospital, obtaining relief from sciatic rheumatism, has returned to his home greatly improved.

Word was received Wednesday of the death of Mrs. Emma Commons of Portland, mother of Mrs. John Lovelace of Estacada.

L. G. Reisland of Estacada is about to begin the erection of a new house, to replace the one which burned a couple of years ago, on his property at the top of Wilson Hill.

Mrs. Forbes and baby of Portland, who have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Tanner of Viola, returned home Sunday.
