A Simple Problem in Arithmetic

- * Do you want to start out with the feeling that you can absolutely depend on the car under your hand?
- * Do you want to know that you have the power at your control to lift you over the hills and out of the roads which have no bottom?
- * Do you want to know that the car you own has a name to maintain, that it is backed by a corporation of standing, that gives you service?
- * Do you want to know that you are getting all this at a price within your means, a price that does not make your car an extravagance?

Then what you want is a CHEVROLET

The Car of the Multitude.
