

To Lengthen Roads

While J. W. Reed of Estacada, the Republican candidate for the nomination for County Commissioner, has not so stated, it is reported that he is considering requesting the present County Court to lengthen all roads in this part of the county, to increase the capacity for the growth of the Ford auto sales.

During the past week the Estacada Garage reports the sale of five more Fords, the purchasers being J. C. Young of Logan, John Aifolter of Eagle Creek, R. O. Morrison, W. H. Holder and J. P. Woodle of Estacada.

George Club Inaugurates Novel Idea

At a meeting of the George Commercial & Social Club, in order to interest more of the local people in the work of the organization, by first allowing them to enjoy the social activities, it was decided to admit so-called Social Members, who will be allowed to remain in such standing for a term of one year, at the expiration of which time, it is hoped they will join the club as active, working members.

Yonce vs. Ferguson

Before Judge Campbell in the circuit court at Oregon City, on April 17th will come up the case of Willis Yonce of Estacada vs. J. W. Ferguson of Portland and Estacada. The plaintiff, who is represented by Attorney E. W. Bartlett asks $75. damages for a broken buggy and harness and $15. for the use of same.

This case is the outcome of the runaway accident, which occurred last summer in George, resulting in the serious injury of A. Wiederhold of Bissell.

Paint Up

Signs of prosperity are everywhere evident in Estacada, among them being the repainting of the Estacada Telephone & Telegraph's Company's building, the work being done by L. G. Reiland.

If an epidemic of repainting could hit Estacada and surrounding country this year, it would do much to brighten up business and living conditions and as an advertisement for a live town, new paint is an asset.

The neighbors in the Garfield section are having a good laugh at the expense of Doc Palmateer, who although well along in years, still feels as frisky as ever. His daughter is telling the story of seeing Doc running at a 10 flat rate through his fields and over fences, in pursuit of a jack rabbit, which had wandered onto his property from over the range, and if it had'nt been for the Delf Creek canyon, Doc would have enjoyed "hasenpfeffer" that evening.

C. I. C. Move Into New Quarters

The Estacada Civic Improvement Club are this week moving into new quarters, in the cottage formerly belonging to Will Cary.

Aside from the lack of the large hall space, the new quarters are more adapted to the purposes of the organization, offering good accommodations for the library and rest room.

While J. W. Reed, the owner of the vacated building has announced no plans as yet, it is understood he is contemplating remodeling it, or possibly replacing it with a concrete structure.

Living Up To Its Namesake

The combination of good weather, more money in circulation and good films is responsible for the decided increase in attendance at the Estacada moving picture shows now.

On Wednesday and Saturday evenings, Estacada's Broadway resembles its namesake, with automobiles and crowds galore.

Last Wednesday night's performance of the laugh creating comedy "Excuse Me" brought out a record attendance and next Wednesday's five reel Pathe feature film, "Via Wireless" will duplicate the crowds.

The following synopsis of the play, gives a slight idea of the story of the film and with Gail Kane as the heroine and Bruce McRae as the hero, it promises an evening of high class entertainment.

"Marsh, a draughtsman in the gun factory of John Durant, is swindled by Edward Pinkney, Durant's general manager, out of the huge royalty to be paid should a gun of Marsh's invention prove a success. Pinkney loves Maisie, but is outrivalled by Lieut. Somers, U. S. N.

Somers also has invented a gun which he gives to be cast to the Durant Iron Works, and which, if successful will do Pinkney out of his expected graft on the Marsh invention. Pinkney takes good care that the Somers gun is "killed" in making. He then misrepresents Somers to Maisie and her father, and though Maisie loves the Lieutenant, she feels she must give him up. Accompanied by her mother and Pinkney, she goes in the Durant yacht for a cruise. The boat hits a mine, and in the rush to leave her, Maisie is trapped in the wireless room. She sends out the S. O. S. signal taught her by Lieut. Somers. The Lieutenant, aboard a U. S. cruiser, arrives at the side of the doomed ship just in time to make a sensational rescue." Adv.
