Parent-Teacher Association Notes

The following program was rendered at the April meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association under the direction of Miss Welch.

Song, "Our Nation"	6th and 7th Grades
Violin Duet, "Iris"	Katie Murphy and Bertha Devore
Reading, An Adventure of Sarah	Mrs. Boyer-Smith
Quotations from Shakespeare	6th and 7th Grades
Talk on "The Merchant of Venice"	Rev. Spiess
Song, "Springtime"	6th and 7th Grades

The president appointed a committee to select some play apparatus as the gift of the association to the school play-shed.

Miss Schrepel will have charge of the May meeting. As that will be the last meeting of the year, the annual election of officers will be held, and all members are requested to be present.

Chris. Johnson of George, who is now buying potatoes for carload shipments to Portland, has to date shipped five carloads, the last one being a few days ago, totaling over 1700 sacks. Mr. Johnson will continue for a week or two longer and expects to dispose of several carloads more.

County Fruit Inspector P. F. Standish, has completed a two months job, attending to inspection duties in the Southern end of the county, where he met with the support and cooperation of all growers. Mr. Standish has returned to his Garfield ranch, where he will remain permanently.

A. E. Sparks of Estacada, last Friday purchased a new Dodge car, through the Cascade Garage, the local agency. Mr. and Mrs. Sparks last summer toured California in a Dodge car, later in the season disposing of same, but buying the same make again this year.

Theodore Turel, Jr., of Estacada, who is now at the San Francisco, U. S. Naval Training School, is reported to be confined to the hospital, suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism.

Among the lucky salmon fishermen on Eagle Creek lately, besides Milt and Harvey Marshall, Walter Douglass, W. Domm, Geo. Armstrong and others, mention must be made of the Califf brothers of Garfield, who have landed half a dozen fine ones lately.
