I have openly and repeatedly charged the District Attorney's office with flagrant extravagance and waste of public funds. The time and the place and the proof have been set forth. My primary competitors avoid the subject studiously, seeming to fear that they may offend "namby-pamby" voters, who are horrified at having the light turned on a public official's record.

You may set it down that the fellow who will not get out in the open and "call a hoe a hoe" is not going to make a telling or successful fight at the Fall election against the deplorable manner in which this office has been conducted.

I am sure it is possible to have economy and efficiency in the District Attorney's office and to make it, at the same time, a pronounced factor in maintaining the moral tone of the community. That is my proposition.

I WANT TO "GET DOWN TO BUSINESS" WITH YOU AT THE ESTACADA MEETING MONDAY EVENING, MAY 1st. That is why I am coming 25 miles to talk to you. Meet me there.

The many friends of Miss Lora Cockerline of Viola are anxiously awaiting the result of a serious operation that was performed on her at a Portland Hospital on Monday morning.

Miss Smedley, a sister of Mrs. Earl Shibley of Springwater, was a visitor at the Shibley home over Easter.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ficken and son Stanley of Viola, after spending the winter in Kansas and Missouri, returned to Viola on Thursday; they are glad to get back to the land of sunshine and rain.

An Easter program was given at the Viola church Sunday evening.

"A CASE OF SUSPENSION"

Erma Graham, Jessie Hannah and Rosalie Allen, co-eds, decided to give Jones, Wagner and Johnson a "feed," in spite of the warnings of Della Lovell, the maid, and Leo Havens, the janitor. Faculty "got wise" through the sleuthing of Prof. Paul Frazier and Prin. Nettie Woodle.

It looked bad for the funmakers but the Faculty remembered their youthful days and helped eat the good things. This was all part of the ultra fine program given by the Adelphics, Friday, April 21st.

Orion Coop returned to school Wednesday, April 26th. Although he has not completely recovered from his injury, he is the same old Orion.
