"Your Satisfaction Is Our Success"

In A Recent Hill Climbing Contest

on Duncan Hill, San Francisco, the Chevrolet was the only car that climbed the hill with power to spare, - actual test.

Some cars tried as many as twenty times without success. Only three cars were able to make the climb.

A two million ($2,000,000.00) dollar Chevrolet Branch is now under construction in Oakland, Cal.

Amateur Vaudeville Saturday.

Manager Sparks is already arranging for additional seating capacity for next Saturday evening's combination picture show and vaudeville performance, when the ladies of the C. I. C. will stage some clever vaudeville, including a short play, and several songs and dances, the participants being local people, whose names are withheld. Everyone is invited, show starts promptly at 7 P. M.

Parent Teachers

To Take Cooking Lesson

The next regular meeting of the Estacada Parent Teacher Association will occur in the domestic science hall of the schools, on Wednesday afternoon, May 10th.

The meeting will be in charge of Miss Schrepel, who teaches the domestic science at Estacada and will include in the program many interesting cooking demonstrations. These meetings are open for all interested parties.

Eagle Creek Notes

Contributed

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Woodle and Mrs. Forrester of Estacada called on Mrs. Howlett Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Walter Douglass, who, a short time ago, had an operation performed on her throat, was getting along nicely at the last report.

Some of the patrons gathered at Mrs. Masson's the other day and practiced some songs for the Grange picnic.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Douglass returned home from Oregon City on Monday.

Miss Clara Bock, who has been working for some seven weeks for Mrs. Howlett, returned home on Sunday.

F. P. Allen, the Sunday School missionary came to Eagle Creek Saturday and stayed over Sunday, holding services at the Douglass school-house.

Everett Beckett and wife left for Portland on Sunday. Mr. Beckett has gone to resume work for the railroad company.

Miss Mumpower of Damascus came up to Mrs. Howlett's on Tuesday to work for her.

Mrs. Jane Douglass of St. Joseph spent several days with her mother recently. She returned home on Tuesday.

Miss Edna Kennedy spent the week-end in Portland.
