Ready For War

If the call comes for a squad of sharp shooters from Estacada in the event of war, a full troop, battalion, corp or gang can be gotten together, each man capable of hitting the mark four out five times.

Since the opening of Ed. Hunt's Shooting Gallery on Broadway, hardly an hour passes without spirited matches taking place between Estacada's business men, with the lawyers at present in the lead.

Mill Now Operating

The announcement is made this week of the Horner Brothers' Mill in Dodge, now being in operation.

With the increased capacity of the new mill, they expect to be in a position to fill all local orders and make shipments to Portland. Allen & Samson of Estacada are the local selling agents.

Republican Candidate For Representative Of Clackamas County

TAXPAYERS:-

I cannot see any just reason why we should not build all of our main roads as much as the much talked of Pacific highway by a state tax, or I will concede an appropriation from the state either way, just so that the people that are benefited the most have to pay their share, and that is just the reason I place it in my pledge to support a measure of this sort and will introduce it.

Every man knows, if he knows anything, that for every mile of road built the metropolis of the state gets the lion's share of benefit. Take the 24,000 automobiles in the state; over one-half are owned in Portland alone and the rest are scattered all over the state. Look at Multnomah county, with her $300,000,000 assessed valuation and poor old Clackamas county with her little $30,000,000 assessed valuation and about four times the amount of road to build. Why should Clackamas be taxed to death to build roads for the benefit of Portland? If you raise a 2-mill state tax for a hard surface road fund to be proportioned according to the miles of main trunk line in its county, then you can get your main lines hard surfaced and not until you do, and then reduce your main road tax, if you want to. Now, if you don't do something of this kind, you will confiscate the farmer's land, for if they are in the same fix that I am, which I guess they are, we can't stand many more 18-mill taxes like I am paying now, and have for three years past. Portland has only 1.8 mills and then hollers her head off because we don't build roads for her motorists.

I don't believe I ever asked for anything but what was just and right in my life, but I believe this is equitable and right and just and if it is right why should I not ask for your support to try and put a measure through of that sort, and if I accomplish that alone it will be worth the while.

LABORERS OF ALL CLASSES:-

When you go into the booth to cast your ballot for the office of Representative to the legislature, think of this: Every man when put to a test should, if he has the proper stuff in him, being true to himself and family, which I will give the other fellow credit for having, vote for and work for his particular line of business. My opponents are doctors, lawyers, bankers and ex-bankers. I am a laboring man, and you all know, a fighter if necessary.

Yours, E. D. OLDS.

Mrs. E. W. Bartlett and Mrs. Wm. Kuhrasche of Estacada will entertain next Monday afternoon at the former's home. The affair will be another of the successful C. I. C. "silver teas."

Fred Proctor and Ed F. Bruns of Sandy were Estacada visitors last week, in the interests of the candidacy of W. A. Proctor for commissioner.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kilgore of Springwater are leaving today for Chicago, where they will be the honored guests at the Crane Company's reunion, as Mr. Kilgore was for years manager of that nation wide business.
