

Order Your Berry Crates NOW

I am arranging to order a carload of berry crates and similar fruit packages this week and if you wish to save money and get in on this big order, advise me at once, as the order will be placed Saturday next.

No matter whether you can use but a few crates this year, or thousands of them—if you order now—you can get the advantage of carload prices. I already have taken the orders for a large number of the leading small fruit growers and can handle yours too.

Dont forget that I am paying Top Prices for W O O L and M O H A I R, as well as buying the Farmers' Produce. and as ever, I am still selling
